2013 Spring Outlook

In 2012, the Georgia Bulldogs had one of the most successful runs in school history.

The Bulldogs rolled up 12 victories, joining the 1980 national champions (12-0) and the 2002 SEC champs (13-1) as the only teams to reach that plateau. Georgia also won the SEC Eastern Division title for the second straight year and recorded a victory over Nebraska in the Capital One Bowl.

"We're excited about this team," quarterback Aaron Murray said. "We've all grown so much the last two seasons and we've put Georgia back on the map. It's been great to be a part of that. And hopefully we can continue to get better and we can build off a great bowl win."

Tailback Todd Gurley (3) and quarterback Aaron Murray (11) were Georgia's leading rusher and passer, respectively, last year and will return to lead the offense for 2013.

Heading into the spring drills that will launch the Bulldogs into the 2013 campaign, Coach Mark Richt has an offense laden with veterans and a defense looking to retool after the departure of several players to graduation and/or to the NFL. But he notes that the defensive situation is similar to the start of 2012 when the Bulldogs had question marks on the offensive line, which ultimately developed into a strong suit for the squad.

"We better be ready," Richt said. "We don't really have a choice. I have a lot of faith in these guys, but they've got to work. They have to prepare right now. They can't just sit here and wait until camp starts, or even until summer. They have to start now. They need to prepare to be the very best at what they do."

The Bulldogs also will have a rare influx of talent for spring drills with the addition of 13 early enrollees, many of whom could see time on the defensive side of the ball.

"I think these guys are almost a class to themselves," Richt said. "It's a really large number of mid-year guys. I told them just to look out for each other and help each other out."

With the incorporation of youthful talent on defense and a strong unit of veterans on offense, Richt knows the Bulldogs are capable of remaining as one of the nation's elite teams in 2013.

"We plan on being that," Richt said. "We hope to be that, but we've got to earn it."

And that work begins with spring practice.

QUARTERBACKS

The Bulldogs got a boost when Aaron Murray (6-1, 210, Sr.) announced he would return for his final season. Murray will enter 2013 as a legitimate candidate for All-America honors and Heisman Trophy consideration. Murray already holds the school record for career touchdown passes at 126, and last year he set the UGA marks for single-season passing yards (3,893), total yards (3,825) and touchdown passes (36). Murray was chosen as the MVP of Capital One Bowl with 427 yards and five touchdowns.

Georgia is also blessed to have quality reserves at quarterback. Hutson Mason (6-3, 196, Jr.) redshirted last season, but he has appeared in eight games in his career, completing 57.4 percent of his passes and throwing three touchdowns. Parker Welch (6-3, 199, Jr.) played in six games a year ago, throwing his first career touchdown pass. Christian LeMay (6-2, 201, So.) logged five games and wound up as the team's fourth-leading rusher. The Bulldogs also return Greg Bingham (6-4, 209, Jr.) and Faton Bauta (6-3, 220, R.Fr.) and will welcome early enrollee Brice Ramsey (6-3, 205, Fr.) for spring drills.

RUNNING BACKS

Georgia has perhaps the strongest 1-2 punch in the SEC with the return of Todd Gurley (6-1, 218, So.) and Keith Marshall (5-11, 216, So.) at tailback. A year ago, Gurley rushed for 1,385 yards – the second-highest total by a true freshman at Georgia, trailing only Herschel Walker – and scored 17 touchdowns. He garnered Freshman All-America, All-SEC, and Freshman All-SEC accolades. Marshall added 759 yards and eight touchdowns, pacing the Bulldogs with a 6.5-yards-per-carry average. Gurley and Marshall accounted for 84 percent of Georgia's yards and 78 percent of its touchdowns on the ground. The Bulldogs also return Brandon Harton (5-6, 175, Sr.), Kyle Karempelis (5-9, 183, Jr.) and Alex Parsons (5-10, 191, Sr.) at tailback.

At fullback, Merritt Hall (5-11, 238, R.So.) appeared in 12 games last year, including six as the starter. He will be backed up by Quayvon Hicks (6-2, 262, So.), Corey Campbell (5-10, 215, Jr.), Dominic Bryan (6-0, 235, R.Fr.), Chris Young (6-1, 224, Sr.) and Taylor Maxey (5-10, 223, R.So.).

WIDE RECEIVERS

Experience and depth give the Bulldogs reason to be optimistic at the wide-out positions. Malcolm Mitchell (6-1, 192, Jr.) went through spring drills and the early part of the regular season in 2012 as a defensive back, then returned full-time to receiver and finished with 40 catches for 572 yards and four touchdowns to rank second on the team. Chris Conley (6-3, 205, Jr.) added 342 yards and six touchdowns, including two scores – one on a 87-yard catch-and-run – in the bowl. Rantavious Wooten (5-10, 179, Sr.) had two touchdowns among his 15 catches, while Justin Scott-Wesley (5-11, 217, So.) picked up a score in his six grabs.

Michael Bennett (6-3, 204, Jr.) is recovering from a torn ACL that sidelined him after he made 24 catches for 345 yards and four touchdowns in the first five games last year. While he will be limited in the spring, he will be ready for the start of the regular season. Georgia's coaches will get their first look this spring at Jonathan Rumph (6-5, 215, Jr.), who transferred from Holmes (Miss.) Community College. He caught 45 passes for 569 yards last season. Early enrollee J.J. Green (5-9, 186, Fr.) will go through spring drills as well.

The Bulldogs also return Rhett McGowan (6-0, 190, Sr.), Blake Tibbs (6-2, 175, R.Fr.), Michael Erdman (5-10, 190, Jr.), Clay Johnson (6-1, 170, R.Fr.), Jamal Payette (6-3, 190, So.), Jake Star (6-5, 220, R.Fr.), Kenneth Towns (6-3, 202, R.Fr.) and Curtis Wyatt (6-1, 200, Jr.).

TIGHT ENDS

This position emerged as a real weapon for the Bulldogs in 2012, and with all the players returning, it should be again in 2013. Arthur Lynch (6-5, 258. Sr.) hauled in 24 passes for 431 yards and three touchdowns, followed by Jay Rome (6-6, 265, So.) with 152 yards and two scores. Ty Flournoy-Smith (6-3, 237, So.) gained valuable experience as a reserve in 2012, and the Bulldogs also return Drew Wilson (6-2, 205, Sr.), Jared Chapple (6-4, 218, R.Fr.), Jack Loonam (6-0, 216, So.), Greg Mulkey (6-3, 230, So.), Geoff Rapp (6-3, 230, So.), Cole Trolinger (6-5, 230, R.Fr.) and Hugh Williams (6-5, 241, Jr.).

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

The Bulldogs return all five starters and all but one letterman on the line, which paved the way for 467.6 total yards and 37.8 points per game in 2012.

The starting five of center David Andrews (6-2, 295, Jr.), guards Chris Burnette (6-2, 322, Sr.) and Dallas Lee (6-4, 300, Sr.) and tackles John Theus (6-6, 309, So.) and Kenarious Gates (6-5, 318, Sr.) remains intact. Burnette and Theus will miss spring drills after undergoing offseason surgeries; however, they are expected to be ready for the start of fall camp. Tackles Mark Beard (6-5, 302, Jr.), Watts Dantzler (6-7, 320, Jr.), Austin Long (6-5, 324, Sr.) and Xzavier Ward (6-7, 293, So.) all are back in the fold.

Georgia returns Hunter Long (6-4, 310, Jr.), Greg Pyke (6-6, 327, R.Fr.), Preston Mobley (6-3, 300, So.) and Caleb Drake (6-1, 275, So.) at guard. The tackles include Zach DeBell (6-6, 293, So.) and Eddie McQuillen (6-8, 300, So.). Early enrollees Aulden Bynum (6-5, 270, Fr.) and Josh Cardiello (6-3, 283, Fr.) will work into the rotation during spring.

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN

New defensive line coach Chris Wilson inherits a position hit hard by graduation and early departures, but he still has three lettermen back, including one starter. Garrison Smith (6-3, 297, Sr.) emerged as a force at end last season, posting 57 tackles. Ray Drew (6-5, 284, Jr.) added 23 stops after making a successful transition to end. The Bulldogs also return Sterling Bailey (6-3, 295, So.) and Clint Kirk (6-3, 275, Sr.) at end. Nose Mike Thornton (6-1, 302, Jr.) played in all 14 games a year ago, primarily on special teams. Georgia also brings back John Taylor (6-4, 335, R.Fr.), who made strides during a redshirt year. Early enrollees Chris Mayes (6-4, 315, RSo.) and John Atkins (6-4, 305, Fr.) will participate in spring drills. Mayes had 17 tackles for Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College in 2011 and redshirted last season.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

The Bulldogs said goodbye to Jarvis Jones, one of the most decorated players in school history, at the end of last season. Still, Georgia returns a host of players with experience. Jordan Jenkins (6-3, 257, So.) came into his own as a rookie, posting 31 tackles, including five sacks, and a fumble recovery opposite Jones. Chase Vasser (6-3, 231, Sr.) had 19 tackles in just five games before being sidelined by an injury. The Bulldogs also return T.J. Stripling (6-6, 235, Sr.), Josh Dawson (6-4, 250, So.), James DeLoach (6-3, 270, So.) and Dillard Pinkston (6-3, 220, R.Fr.). Stripling had a sack among his nine tackles a year ago.

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

Amarlo Herrera (6-2, 245, Jr.) is Georgia's leading returning tackler with 70 (which ranked fifth in 2012). Herrera also returned an interception for a touchdown a year ago. Georgia returns Ramik Wilson (6-2, 224, So.), Kosta Vavlas (6-0, 219, Jr.) and Brandon Burrows (6-3, 248, Jr.) as well as Tommy Long (6-2, 220, R.Fr.), A.J. McDonald (6-0, 230, Jr.) and Matt Stagg (6-3, 225, R.Fr.). Early enrollees Ryne Rankin (6-1, 230, Fr.) and Reggie Carter (6-1, 224, Fr.) will participate in spring drills.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Three-fourths of the starting backfield was lost to graduation, leaving cornerback Damian Swann (5-11, 189, Jr.) as the lone returner. Swann paced the Bulldogs with four interceptions, including two in the bowl, and he added 53 tackles. Swann also recovered two fumbles and posted two sacks.

Lettermen returning with Swann at cornerback are Blake Sailors (5-11, 187, Sr.), Sheldon Dawson (5-11, 181, So.) and Devin Bowman (6-0, 180, So.). At safety, the Bulldogs have Connor Norman (5-10, 207, Jr.), Josh Harvey-Clemons (6-5, 207, So.), Marc Deas (6-1, 212, Jr.) and Corey Moore (6-2, 214, Jr.) back. Norman, a two-game starter among that group, posted 18 tackles last year, while Harvey-Clemons and Moore each had 14. Georgia also returns Devin Gillespie (5-10, 195, R.Fr.), Lucas Redd (6-1, 209, Jr.), Austin Herod (5-10, 183, Sr.), Jesse Jones (6-0, 190, So.) and Jon Bailey (6-0, 200, Jr.)

Early enrollees Reggie Wilkerson (5-11, 163, Fr.), Quincy Mauger (6-0, 197, Fr.) and Tray Matthews (6-0, 194, Fr.) will get their first taste of college during spring drills. Tramel Terry (6-0, 190, Fr.) is in Athens too but he will be rehabbing a knee surgery.

SPECIALISTS

Kicker Marshall Morgan (6-3, 201, So.) and punter Colin Barber (6-2, 200, So.) were thrust into starting roles a year ago and should be even better with a year's worth of experience under their belts. Morgan went 8-of-14 on field goals, including two from more than 50 yards, and he was 63-of-67 on extra points for 87 points – the second-highest total on the team. Barber averaged 41.5 yards per punt, pinning opponents inside the 20-yard line 19 times on 60 attempts. He had a long punt of 60 yards.

The Bulldogs also return punters Adam Erickson (5-10, 175, Jr.) and Ethan Jackson (5-11, 178, Sr.). Erickson was the holder on extra points and field goals and punted eight times last year. Patrick Beless (5-9, 155, R.Fr.) and Thomas Pritchard (5-10, 160, R.Fr.) are back to provide depth at kicker.

Nathan Theus (6-3, 249, So.) and Wright Gazaway (6-0, 243, R.So.) will vie for playing time at snapper.

Opening Up

Since 1992, Georgia has opened its SEC schedule up against South Carolina in every season but one. Last year, the Bulldogs traveled to Columbia, Mo., rather than Columbia, S.C., to start their league play. Georgia topped Missouri 41-20 in the Tigers' first SEC game in history.

This season, the Bulldogs again play their first game versus South Carolina and the matchup will be held in Georgia's Sanford Stadium.

Make That Two SEC Eastern Titles In A Row

With Georgia's 38-0 victory at Auburn on Nov. 10, the Bulldogs clinched the SEC East. Georgia made its fifth trip to the SEC Championship Game, all under Mark Richt including the second in a row. Second-ranked and eventual national champion Alabama edged third-ranked Georgia 32-28 for the 2012 SEC title on Dec. 1 in Atlanta.

2013 Bulldog Spring Storylines

Potent Offense

Georgia became only the third team in school history to have 12 wins in a season last year thanks in large part to its explosive offense The Bulldogs scored a school record 529 points including scoring more than 40 points in eight games last season. This averaged out to 37.8 points a game, also a school record. Good news for Georgia in 2013 is that the team loses only one starter on offense and returns Freshman All-American TB Todd Gurley and record-breaking QB Aaron Murray.

Murray Prepares For Final Season

Record-setting quarterback Aaron Murray opted to return for his final year and not enter the NFL Draft as a fourth-year junior. As the SEC's most seasoned signal-caller, he has started every game the past three seasons, a total of 41 games. He has led the Bulldogs to a pair of SEC Eastern Division titles and directed Georgia to only its third 12-win season in school history last year. He is the NCAA active leader with 95 career touchdown passes and ranks fourth in passing efficiency at 158.55.

Talented Tailback Tandem Returns

The Bulldogs feature a potent duo at tailback in Todd Gurley and Keith Marshall. The pair combined for 2,144 yards and 25 touchdowns in 2012 as true freshmen. Gurley posted the second best output by a freshman tailback in school history, accounting for 1,385 yards and 17 touchdowns. Marshall finished with 759 yards and eight touchdowns.

And Then There Were Two

Georgia returns just two starters from the 2012 defense: junior defensive back Damain Swann and senior defensive lineman Garrison Smith. Swann led the Bulldogs with a team-high four interceptions. He tallied 53 tackles and two sacks. Smith led all lineman with 57 stops. The duo played in all 14 games last year.

New Faces Abound

As part of its large signing class, the Bulldogs had a school-record 13 members enroll in January including a pair of JUCO defensive lineman. Georgia lost nine starters on defense but just one on offense. The bulk of the signing class should provide immediate depth and have an excellent opportunity to compete for playing time in 2013.

Winning Streak

The Bulldogs enter the 2013 season with a 12-game win streak in Sanford Stadium. Georgia went 7-0 in 2012 and won its last five during the 2011 season. The Bulldogs' last Sanford Stadium defeat came to 12th-ranked South Carolina, 45-42, on Sept. 10, 2011.

Georgia also set a school record for points in a season with 529 in 2012 (37.8 pts./game). The old school mark was 450 by the 2002 team in 14 games.

Non-Conference Success

Under the direction of Mark Richt, Georgia owns a 49-8 record against teams from outside the Southeastern Conference. They are 34-1 at home since 2001. Last year, the Bulldogs went a perfect 5-0 as they beat Buffalo, Florida Atlantic, Ga. Southern, Ga. Tech and #23 Nebraska.

In 2013, Georgia's non-conference foes feature Clemson in the season opener on the road along with home games with North Texas and Appalachian State and the regular season finale at Ga. Tech.

Georgia last opened a season at Clemson in 2003, a 30-0 Bulldog shutout. Georgia has a 41-17-4 lead in the series with the Tigers. The Bulldogs have won the past five meeting with Clemson. It will be the first-ever meetings with North Texas and Appalachian State. The Bulldogs own a 61-37-5 edge in the rivalry with the Yellow Jackets including winning the past four meetings.

OFFENSE

Murray Operates With Surgical Precision

Senior QB Aaron Murray is one of the nation's elite at his position. In 2012, Murray ranked second in the nation in passing efficiency at 174.82. The SEC record is 182.1 set by Auburn Heisman Trophy winner Cam Newton in 2010. In 2011, Murray graduated with a degree in Psychology after posting a GPA of 3.4. He is now in graduate school.

In his 28 wins as a starter, Murray has 74 TDs to just 16 INTs. Murray is the SEC's leading active player in total offensive yards (10,301), completions (696), TD responsibility (105), TD passes (95) and passing yards (10,091).

Here are some of Murray's highlights from 2012:

- First SEC QB in history to have three consecutive 3,000-yard passing seasons after completing 14-of-17 for 215 and two touchdowns versus Georgia Tech
- Directed four straight touchdown drives to open Auburn game as Bulldogs clinched the SEC East title with a 38-0 win on the Plains
- Named SEC Offensive Player of the Week in 37-10 romp over Ole Miss
- Led Georgia to a 17-9 upset over #3 Florida in Jacksonville, Fla.
- School record setting performance at Kentucky with a 79 percent completion percentage with 427 passing yards and four touchdowns
- Matched career-high 427 passing yards and 5 TD passes in 45-31 win over #23 Nebraska in 2013 Capital One Bowl
- Started the Vanderbilt game by completing his first 12 passes in a 48-3 victory

Bowl Subdivision (FBS) Active Career Leaders Entering 2013
TD Passes: 1. Aaron Murray, 95
Pass Efficiency: 4. A. Murray, 158.55 (1. Casey Pachall, TCU, 163.11)

A Look At The Line

Georgia's starting offensive line was the same for the first nine games of the year and then returned to the same alignment in the final three games. It featured Kenarious Gates at LT, Chris Burnette at RG, Dallas Lee at LG, David Andrews at C and John Theus at RT.

The unit did not give up any sacks versus #3 Florida and helped give the Bulldogs their sixth 100-yard rusher in 2012, and the first that the Gators had allowed in 2012. Theus became the first true freshman starter at OT since Trinton Sturdivant in 2007. With Burnette out against Auburn and Georgia Southern, Mark Beard started at LT, Gates at LG, Andrews at C, Lee at RG and Theus at RT.

Here's a look at Georgia's offensive production in 2012:

Opponent	^Points	Total Offense (Rushing/Passing)	Sacks

vs. #23 Nebraska	45	589 (162/427)	2

school record, tied No. 6 in SEC history; ^first time in school history that the Bulldogs scored 40+ points in five consecutive games*

Malcolm In The Middle Of Everything

Malcolm Mitchell demonstrated his versatility in 2012. After sitting out the first game with an ankle injury, he started the next three games at CB and played on offense in the last 10 contests. On defense, he recorded 12 tackles. On offense, the Valdosta native ranked among the team leaders with 40 catches for 572 yards and four touchdowns. Mitchell led the team against the No. 3 Gators with five catches for 74 yards, including a 45-yard touchdown reception to clinch the victory. He was coming off a nine-catch performance at Kentucky as he posted the second 100-yard game of his career with 103 yards.

Mitchell also recorded 16 kick returns for 360 yards (22.5 avg.) and 11 punt returns for 57 yards. Here is where Mitchell spent his 533 snaps through 12 games: Def, - 178 snaps; Spec. Teams - 129 snaps; Off. - 226 snaps

Assortment Of Dangerous Targets

One of the keys to Aaron Murray's success has been his passing efficiency, and his ability to spread the ball around. In 2012, four different receivers had 100-yard games and 11 Bulldogs combined for 36 touchdown receptions from him. Georgia lost two of its receivers during the year due to ACL injuries in then senior Marlon Brown and then sophomore Michael Bennett. The Bulldog leaders last season were Tavarres King and Malcolm Mitchell. Georgia lost Bennett before the South Carolina game and Brown during the Ole Miss contest. King, now preparing for the NFL, had a team-best 950 yards on 42 catches (22.6 avg.). Against #2 Alabama, King had 142 yards on five catches. King, Mitchell and Chris Conley were very productive the final five games. In that stretch, King had 15 catches for 399 yards and three TDs. Mitchell had 14 for 214 and two scores while Conley had 13 for 258 yards and five TDs.

Conley's two catches in the Capital One Bowl win over #23 Nebraska covered 136 yards and resulted in two TDs. Mitchell led the attack in the upset of #3 Florida, hauling in five catches for 74 yards, including a 45-yard TD reception to clinch the win.

Also, Georgia welcomes back in 2013 senior tight end Arthur Lynch and sophomore Jay Rome. They combined for 35 catches for 583 yards and five TDs. Rome's first career TD catch came versus Georgia Tech. Rome notched his second career TD in the SEC Championship game versus #2 Alabama. Lynch executed a succesful fake punt by completing a 16-yard pass to Sanders Commings against the Crimson Tide. It was his first career pass attempt and reception for the duo. Lynch had three catches for 37 yards and a TD in the season-ending victory over #23 Nebraska.

Gurley & Marshall Ignite Rushing Attack

Since the legendary #34 Herschel Walker lined up in the Bulldog backfield, every tailback since then has been compared to the Heisman Trophy winner who led the Bulldogs to the 1980 national championship. In 2012, true freshmen roommates and North Carolina natives Todd Gurley and Keith Marshall, who wear No. 3 and 4 respectively, were nicknamed 'Gurshall' by then senior receiver Tavarres King. Gurley hails from Tarboro, N.C., while Marshall is a native of Raleigh, N.C.

Gurley became the 12th Bulldog to rush for 1,000 yards in a season and the first since Knowshon Moreno in 2008 after going for 68 yards and a touchdown versus Georgia Southern on Nov. 17 in the 11th game of the year. When Moreno did it, he was a redshirt sophomore. He gained 1,400 yards with 16 touchdowns in 13 games. Only Gurley and Walker have tallied 1,000-yard seasons in their true freshman seasons.

Gurley finished second in the SEC in Rushing Yards Per Game (98.9), third in Scoring (108 pts.) and third in All-Purpose Yards Per Game (124.6).

In the SEC Championship Game against No. 2 Alabama, Gurley rushed for 122 yards on 23 carries with two TDs. Alabama faced six 1,000 yard rushers in the 2012 season, and Gurley was the only one to go over 100 yards. Three of those six players were held to a season-low rushing total. Also, the Crimson Tide allowed only 10 rushing TDs all year. Gurley now owns the Bulldog freshman record for rushing TDs in a season with 17.

Gurley became the first player this season to rush for more than 100 yards against #3 Florida after he went for 118 and a touchdown. Against Tennessee, he and Marshall combined for 200+ yards (294) and five touchdowns on the ground. Marshall averaged 16.4 yards/carry versus the Volunteers, tallying a career-best 164 yards and two touchdowns while Gurley equaled his career high with 130 yards and three scores. Gurley's longest TD run against UT covered 51 yards while Marshall's were 72 and 75 yards.

Gurley and Marshall combined for 12 runs of 25 or more yards during the season, including eight that went for touchdowns.

In the Bulldogs win over Ga. Tech to end the regular season, both Gurley and Marshall finished with a pair of TDs and combined for 163 yards on the ground. Marshall averaged 9.4 yds./carry against the Yellow Jackets while Gurley averaged 8.1. Gurley was named the SEC Freshman of the Week three times while Marshall had the honor once. Gurley, Marshall and Texas A&M quarterback Johnny Manziel shared the honor the last week of September after standout performances.

No. 2 Signal Caller For The Bulldogs

During 2013 spring practice, redshirt junior Hutson Mason will lead a group of quarterbacks vying for playing time behind senior Aaron Murray. Mason was listed as the No. 2 on the depth chart during the 2012 season but did not play as a redshirt to create a year of separation between the entrenched starter. However, Mason played in four games at quarterback in 2011, going 18-of-30 for 254 yards and two touchdowns. Overall, he has appeared in eight games in his career. The other two Bulldog quarterbacks to see action in 2012 were a combined 4-for-9 for 82 yards with one TD.

Redshirt sophomore QB Christian LeMay has appeared in five games in his career. He was 1-for-2 for 43 yards and one interception last season. His lone career completion came to redshirt sophomore Justin Scott-Wesley against Florida Atlantic on Sept. 15.

Redshirt junior Parker Welch is the only other quarterback with collegiate playing experience. Welch played in two games in 2011 and completed his only pass for 20 yards versus Coastal Carolina. In 2012, Welch appeared in six games, and he was 3-for-7 for 39 yards with one touchdown. He fired a 13-yard TD pass to Scott-Wesley in the rout of Georgia Southern on Nov. 17.

One of Georgia's 13 early enrollees who be around for Spring Practice is quarterback Brice Ramsey (Camden Co. HS, Kingsland, Ga.).

DEFENSE & SPECIAL TEAMS

Getting Defensive

In Georgia's last three SEC regular season victories, the Bulldogs allowed just 19 points (one touchdown, four field goals) and had a streak of six scoreless quarters. After registering 11 sacks through its first seven games, the defense tallied 18 in the final seven en route to clinching the team's second straight SEC East title by going 7-1 in the league and 12-2 overall.

Georgia capped the season with a 45-31 win over #23 Nebraska in the Capital One Bowl. After surrendering 24 points in the first half (including an INT-return for a TD), the defense allowed just one TD in the second half. The Bulldogs limited the Cornhuskers to 197 yards of total offense in the second half. Nebraska got 75 yards and a TD on their first possession of the third quarter.

Against No. 2 Alabama in the SEC Championship game, Georgia blanked the Crimson Tide in the first quarter and held them to a season-low 10 first half points. However, the Crimson Tide used a bruising rushing attack to tally 22 points in the second half en route to a 32-28 win.

Overall, Georgia made key second-half adjustments as opponents have averaged just 7.7 points in the final two quarters (107 points), and one touchdown came on an interception return. In the win over #3 Florida, the Gators were held to a field goal. In fact in the 17-9 win, the Gators' points came from three field goals, which marked the first time since 1988 that Florida failed to score a touchdown against the Bulldogs.

Georgia Tech's spread-option offense ran 88 plays but managed only 10 points in its lowest scoring output of the season. The touchdown came against Bulldog reserves as Georgia was up 42-3 in the fourth quarter.

The Bulldog defense forced the Gators into six turnovers after Florida entered the game with just four turnovers on the year. Only one of Florida's three field goals came on a drive that measured longer than 11 yards. The other two came off of Bulldog turnovers with one being a four-play, 6-yard drive and one being a five-play, 10-yard drive. Against Ole Miss, the Rebels built a 10-0 through the 11:45 mark of the second quarter. From that point on, Georgia's defense outscored Ole Miss 2-0. The Rebels' last 12 drives of the game resulted in no points, just 76 yards and three turnovers.

Here's a look inside the numbers for the Georgia defense in 2012:

Some New Faces In The Linebacker Corps

Georgia must replace two-time consensus All-American Jarvis Jones along with seniors Christian Robinson and Mike Gilliard plus the early departure of All-SEC Alec Ogletree to the NFL. However, the Bulldogs have a couple of veteran returners in ILB Amarlo Herrera and OLB Jordan Jenkins.

Herrera, who started nine games, ranked fifth on the team with 70 tackles. He tallied a career-high 11 tackles at #6 South Carolina after registering a career-high 10 stops at Missouri. He added a 35-yard interception return for a touchdown during the 56-20 win over Florida Atlantic.

Jenkins started six games as a true freshman and saw action in all 14 games. He finished with 31 tackles, 8 tackles for a loss and five sacks. Another young Bulldog who gained valuable experience in 2012 was Josh Harvey-Clemons. He played in all 14 games as a freshman and was a standout on special teams including being elected captain for the Kentucky game. Harvey-Clemons was the first true freshman Bulldog named a captain for a game since 2007.

Swann Lone Returnee In The Secondary

Junior Damian Swann is the only starter back from the 2012 secondary. He led the Bulldogs with four interception and had 53 tackles including two sacks. He capped his sophomore year by tying a Bulldog bowl record with two interceptions in the win over #23 Nebraska.

Swann had two other big-time performances during the season. In the Ole Miss game, Swann had three tackles, one sack and two fumble recoveries, including a 53-yard return. He had an interception and a forced fumble against #3 Florida that led to 10 points in the Bulldogs' 17-9 upset.

A pair of reserve safeties return for the Bulldogs in juniors Connor Norman and Corey Moore. Norman started two games and played in all 14 contests. He finished with 18 tackles. Moore played in 14 games with one start to go with 14 tackles. Also, defensive back Sheldon Dawson appeared in 13 games and had 12 tackles. Georgia's 2013 signing class featured eight defensive backs/safeties including three who enrolled early in Tray Matthews, Quincy Mauger and Reggie Wilkerson.

Big Guys Around The Ball

Georgia will have to rebuild its interior line after a trio of veterans have moved on to the NFL in Abry Jones, John Jenkins and Kwame Geathers. However, the leading tackler from this unit is back in senior Garrison Smith. Smith, a 6-3, 297-pound native of Atlanta, started eight games and registered 57 tackles. The aforementioned trio that has departed accounted for 107 tackles last season.

Junior Ray Drew is one of the top options for increased playing time here. He collected 23 tackles in 13 games. The Bulldogs welcomed a pair from the junior college ranks that enrolled this January and will go through spring drills. They are Chris Mayes, 6-4, 330-pound native of Griffin via Mississippi Gulf Coast CC and Johnathan Atkins, a 6-4, 305-pound native of Thomson, Ga., via Hargrave Military Academy.

The defensive line will be lead by coach Chris Wilson, who joined the Bulldogs in January from Mississippi State. Georgia's former defensive line coach, Rodney Garner, left for a similiar position at his alma mater, Auburn.

Specialists Gain Experience

In 2012, punter Collin Barber of Cartersville, Ga., and place-kicker Marshall Morgan of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., came in as freshman and had to replace a couple of Bulldogs who went on to become NFL starters (Drew Butler-Pittsburgh, Blair Walsh-Minnesota; Walsh made the Pro Bowl).

Morgan tallied 87 points on the year. He hit 8-of-14 field goals (hitting two from 50+) and connected on a school record 63-of-67 extra points.

Barber lifted a 57-yard punt on his first try against Buffalo and averaged 41.5 yards in 2012 with a career-long punt of 60 yards versus Ole Miss.

Last season marked the first since 1985 that Georgia opened with a punter and placekicker without any collegiate experience. That year, punter Cris Carpenter and placekicker Steve Crumley were redshirt freshman.

The Return Men

Georgia featured a couple of newcomers who returned punts and kickoffs in 2012 and will be back in 2013. The main kickoff returner was sophomore Malcolm Mitchell (16 for 360, 22.5 avg.).

Newcomer Todd Gurley has also had seven returns, including a 100 yarder to tie the NCAA record versus Buffalo which shot his average up to 34.7. Mitchell and Rhett McGowan split time as the punt returners. McGowan averaged 8.3 on nine returns while Mitchell had 11 returns for 57 yards (5.2 avg.) Junior FLK Chris Conley also made an impact play on special teams in 2012. Conley blocked a Buffalo punt in the season opener to set up a 35-yard field goal.

The Big Plays in 2012

The Bulldogs had 70 plays which covered 25+ yards while their opponents had 46.

Georgia's longest play of the year came in the season opener, a 100-yard kickoff return by freshman Todd Gurley. The longest play from the line of scrimmage came in the 2013 Capital One Bowl, an 87-yard TD pass from Aaron Murray to Chris Conley.

Making Their First Starts

Georgia had 11 first-time starters, including six true freshmen. True freshman RT John Theus, sophomore C David Andrews and redshirt freshman FB Merritt Hall got the nod in the opener versus Buffalo while redshirt sophomore FS Connor Norman and redshirt freshman CB Devin Bowman lined up on defense. True freshman Marshall Morgan kicked off to start the game and kicked the extra points against the Bulls.

At Missouri, true freshman TB Todd Gurley got the first start of his career. Fellow true freshman OLB Jordan Jenkins got his first career start for the Bulldogs against Florida Atlantic. Sophomore SS Corey Moore lined up at receiver to start the Ole Miss game.

True freshman TB Keith Marshall and junior SE Rhett McGowan started the bowl game against Nebraska.

The True Freshman Experience

RT John Theus, TB Keith Marshall, TB Todd Gurley, PK Marshall Morgan, OLB Jordan Jenkins, FB Quayvon Hicks, TE Ty Flournoy-Smith, CB Sheldon Dawson, SS Josh Harvey-Clemons, OLB James DeLoach, P Collin Barber, OLB Josh Dawson and C Preston Mobley were the 13 true freshmen to play for the Bulldogs in the first game.

This marks the most true freshmen to play in the season opener in the Richt era. The previous high was 11 in 2008. UGA tied for sixth nationally with its 13 true freshmen who played.

Did You Know?

The Bulldogs set a school record with 72 TDs this year. The old mark was 54 set in 1942 (12 games) and in 2011 (13 games).

Georgia's 72 TDs ranked seventh in SEC history.

Taking It To The House

Here are the four *100-yard kickoff returns in school history:

2012: Todd Gurley vs. Buffalo
2010: Brandon Boykin @ Kentucky
2009: Boykin @ Tennessee
2009: Boykin vs. South Carolina

 - these 100-yard kickoff returns tie the school, SEC and NCAA records; there have only been two 100-yard plays by Georgia players in Sanford Stadium history with Gurley and Boykin's returns*

2012 Game Summaries

BUFFALO

Sept. 1, 2012 • Sanford Stadium - Athens, Ga.

Quarterback Aaron Murray led the passing attacking, finishing 15-for-26 for 258 yards and three touchdowns. Freshman Todd Gurley became the first Georgia true freshman to run for at least 100 yards and three touchdowns since Danny Ware in 2004 against Georgia Southern. Gurley finished with eight carries for 100 yards and three touchdowns, including a school, SEC and NCAA-record tying 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. Keith Marshall finished with 10 carries for 51 yards. Tavarres King finished with six catches for 117 yards and a touchdown, while Michael Bennett and Rantavious Wooten each hauled in one touchdown pass each.

Jarvis Jones led the team defensively, racking up eight tackles, including six solo tackles and 2.5 tackles for a loss. Damien Swann also finished with eight tackles, while Michael Gilliard registered seven.

The Bulldogs got on the board early when Gurley rushed for a 10-yard touchdown that capped off a seven play, 53-yard drive that took 3:10 off the clock that made it 7-0.

Buffalo answered with a 16-yard touchdown pass from Alex Neutz to Alex Zordich that made it a 7-6 game after a failed point-after attempt.

Georgia answered on the ensuring kickoff, when Gurley took it 100 yards to the end zone to give the Bulldogs a 14-6 lead, following the extra-point by Marshall Morgan.

Morgan extended the Bulldog lead to 17-6 on a 35-yard field goal at the 12:16 mark of the second quarter. King hauled in a 63-yard touchdown pass from Murray to cap off a four play, 75 yard drive that took just 1:23 off the clock.

Buffalo drove the ball 94 yards on eight plays to cut the lead to 24-16 on a Branden Oliver run. With just two seconds on the clock, the Bulls made a 18-yard field goal that sent the game into halftime with Georgia holding a 24-16 lead.

Georgia scored the only points of the third quarter when Murray found Wooten for a 38-yard touchdown pass. Following the Morgan kick, the Bulldogs pulled away 31-16.

On its opening possession of the fourth quarter, Murray ended a 49-yard march downfield when he found Bennett in the back of the end zone for 12 yards that extended Georgia's lead to 38-16. Gurley scored his third touchdown of the game when he broke off a 55-yard run. Morgan made the point after, bringing the score to 45-15.

With just over four minutes left to play, Buffalo orchestrated a 10-play, 75-yard drive that resulted in a two-yard touchdown run by Zordich.

Coach Mark Richt said…

"There's no such thing as a bad victory. We are thankful for the win. I want to congratulate Buffalo for the effort. They played extremely well. 1-0 is a great thing. ... We've got some things to clean up, there's no doubt about that. We had a play with 10 men on the field and a play with 12 men on the field. We had some issues that should not happen. But they did, so we've got to correct them and square them away for next week."

- Game captains were Aaron Murray, Shawn Williams, Ty Frix and Abry Jones.
- Chris Conley blocked a punt early in the second quarter to give the Bulldogs the ball at the Buffalo 23. This was the first blocked punt for the Bulldogs since Orson Charles had one at Vanderbilt in 2011.
- Thirteen true freshmen made their debut: RT John Theus, TB Keith Marshall, TB Todd Gurley, PK Marshall Morgan, OLB Jordan Jen- kins, FB Quayvon Hicks, TE Ty Flournoy-Smith, CB Sheldon Daw- son, SS Josh Harvey-Clemons, OLB James DeLoach, P Collin Barber, OLB Josh Dawson and C Preston Mobley.

MISSOURI

Sept. 8, 2012 • Faurot Field - Columbia, Mo.

The Bulldogs scored 24 unanswered points in the second half to pull away from the Missouri Tigers and capture the 41-20 victory in their first SEC contest of the season. Quaterback Aaron Murray led the Bulldogs through the air, going 22-for-35 for 242 yards and three touchdowns. Marlon Brown led the receivers with eight catches for 106 total yards, while Michael Bennett added 79 yards and Tavarres King finished with two catches for 41 yards and a touchdown. Todd Gurley led Georgia in rushing for the second consecutive game, finishing with 65 yards and a touchdown on 10 carries. Ken Malcome added 33 yards on seven carries and one touchdown.

ILB Amarlo Herrera posted a career-high 10 tackles, all in the first half, and recovered a fumble to lead the Dawgs on defense. All-American OLB Jarvis Jones tallied eight tackles, a sack and an interception on the day, and Shawn Williams and Christian Robinson each tallied eight tackles apiece.

Neither team was able to score in the first quarter, and the Tigers finally ended the scoring drought with a 38-yard field goal by Andrew Baggett at the 12:07 mark of the second quarter to take a 3-0 lead. Georgia responded later in the quarter with a career-best 52-yard field goal from freshman Marshall Morgan to knot the score at 3-3. It was the longest field goal on the road by a Bulldog since Blair Walsh made a 53-yarder at Oklahoma State in 2009.

Missouri scored the first touchdown of the game at the 1:31 mark in the second quarter on a 41-yard pass from James Franklin to Marcus Lucas for a 10-3 lead, but the Georgia offense quickly mounted their own scoring drive right before halftime, going 71 yards in five plays and finishing with a 2-yard touchdown pass from Murray to Brown. Morgan missed the ensuing PAT, so the Tigers maintained a 10-9 lead over Georgia heading into the break.

Missouri opened up play in the second half with a 69-yard touchdown pass from Franklin to L'D Washington with 11:48 remaining in the third quarter to take a 17-9 lead, but once again, Murray found an open Georgia receiver in the end zone - this time Tavarres King - for a 7-yard touchdown pass at the 7:27 mark in the third quarter. The Bulldogs went for two points and were rewarded for their efforts, as Michael Bennett caught a pass from Murray to knot the score at 17 apiece.

Baggett booted a 25-yard field goal at the 2:39 mark in the third quarter for Missouri's final points of the game, but the Bulldogs then drove the ball 72 yards on five plays in just over 90 seconds to take their first lead at 24-20, as Murray found Brown for an 11-yard touchdown pass.

It was all Georgia in the fourth quarter, as Morgan nailed his second field goal of the game - this time from 41 yards out - to extend the Georgia lead to 27-20 with 11:17 remaining. Later in the quarter, Jarvis Jones intercepted a pass from Franklin and returned it 21 yards to the 1-yard line. Gurley then ran the ball in from the one to give the Dawgs a 34-20 lead with 7:33 remaining in the game. Malcome capped the scoring spurt for Georgia with a 6-yard run at the 5:16 mark to seal the 41-20 victory.

Coach Mark Richt said…

"I'm very pleased, and I'm just so proud of our team. It was a really hard-fought ballgame, and 21 points is not indicative of how close the game was. We just made some plays at the end there that got some quick scores for us. My hat just goes off to the Missouri coaches, and their players and fans...Richard Samuel's stop on the fake punt might have been the play of the game. It's the one that made me the happiest."

- For the first time since 2008, Georgia is now 2-0. The Bulldogs improve to 39-10 on the road in an opponent's stadium under Mark Richt, who is now 108-38 overall in his 12th season at Georgia.
- Game captains were Aaron Murray, Tavarres King, Jarvis Jones and Kosta Vavlas.
- Freshman tailback Todd Gurley made his first career start, finishing with 10 carries for 65 yards plus two kickoff returns for 62 yards. Sophomore cornerback Malcolm Mitchell made his first career start on defense.
- Georgia forced its first turnover of the season to thwart a Missouri scoring opportunity inside the red zone early in the 2nd quarter. Sopphomore ILB Amarlo Herrera recovered the fumble at the Georgia 28.
- With his three touchdown passes in the game, junior Aaron Murray now has 65 in his career, which currently ranks third in school history.

FLORIDA ATLANTIC

Sept. 15, 2012 • Sanford Stadium- Athens, Ga.

Quarterback Aaron Murray finished with a career-best 342 passing yards as the seventh-ranked Georgia Bulldogs routed the Florida Atlantic Owls 56-20 in front of 92,746 fans and a regionally televised CSS audience on Saturday night at Sanford Stadium in Athens, Ga. With the win, Georgia improves to 3-0, while the Owls fall to 1-2 overall.

The Bulldogs put up over 700-yards of offense for the first time in school history, finishing with 713. In his career-day, Murray went 14-for-19 with one interception and two touchdowns through the air and added 20 yards and two touchdowns on the ground. Michael Bennett was Murray's top target, finishing with 110 yards on four catches and a touchdown. Arthur Lynch added three catches for 73 yards and a touchdown. Todd Gurley and Keith Marshall each went over 100 yards and a touchdown, finishing with 111 and 104 yards respectively. It marked the first time that two freshman running backs went over 100 yards since 2004. Defensively, it was Shawn Williams who lead the team with 12 tackles, including seven solo stops and one tackle for a loss. Michael Gilliard registered nine tackles, including two for a loss.

Georgia used its ground game, rushing for 54 yards, including a 24-yard pick- up by Rantavious Wooten and a 1-yard touchdown run by Murray, to take an early 7-0 lead, following the Marshall Morgan extra point.

With 2:30 on the clock, the Owls tied it at seven on 43-yard run by Damian Fortner after recovering a Georgia fumble.

The Bulldogs responded with a 5-play, 94-yard drive that included a 34-yard completion from Murray to Marlon Brown and a 48-yard completion to Tavarres King. Marshall scored his first collegiate touchdown on the following play, rushing for four yards into the end zone that put the Bulldogs up 14-7, following the point after.

FAU made it a 14-14 game with just over 12 minutes to play in the second quarter when Wilbert completed a 48-yard pass that set up a 2-yard touchdown grab by Nexon Dorvilus.

Georgia went on to score 49 unanswered points, including a 67-yard touchdown catch by Bennett and a 35-yard touchdown grab by Lynch. Also in on the scoring was Gurley, who finished off a 5-play, 78-yard drive that made it 42-14 following the PAT. Amarlo Herrera added a touchdown on a pick-six that made it 49-14 on the Morgan kick. Christian LeMay added a touchdown late in the third quarter on a one-yard run that set up an extra point that gave Georgia a 56-14 lead.

FAU made it a 56-20 game after Adarious Glanton intercepted LeMay and returned it 42 yards. The PAT was blocked by Kwame Geathers, resulting in a 56-20 score.

Coach Mark Richt said…

"The offense really did a good job — running the ball, passing the ball, pass protecting. When you get that type of output, you're executing and doing some very good things. If we can keep from shooting ourselves in the foot with turnovers and penalties, we've got a chance to be good on offense."

VANDERBILT

Sept. 22, 2012 • Sanford Stadium- Athens, Ga.

The fifth-ranked University of Georgia football team improved to 4-0 overall and 2-0 in the Southeastern Conference with a 48-3 win over the Vanderbilt Com- modores on Saturday night in front of a sellout crowd of 92,746 and a nationally-televised ESPN2 audience. Vanderbilt drops to 1-3 overall and 0-2 in the SEC.

Aaron Murray led the passing attack, finishing with 250 yards and two touch- downs on 18-for-24 passing. Murray spread the ball around, with nine players record- ing a catch. Marlon Brown led the way with five catches for 114 yards and a touch- down. Tavarres King added 58 yards and a touchdown on four catches. Todd Gurley and Keith Marshall led a balanced rushing attack, with Gurley finishing with 130 yards and two touchdowns and Marshall totaling 82 yards on 10 carries and a pair of touch- downs. It was Gurley's third 100-yard rushing game of the season. As a team, Georgia racked up 567 yards of total offense, including 302 yards on the ground.

Jarvis Jones led the Bulldogs defensively, finishing with seven tackles, including four solo stops and three tackles for a loss. Amarlo Herrera also totaled seven tackles, including six solo stops and one tackle for a loss. Michael Gilliard racked up six stops.

Georgia jumped out to a 7-0 lead early in the first quarter on a four-yard run by Gurley. A 22-yard punt return and a 16-yard reception by King set up the touchdown.

Vanderbilt was flagged for roughing the kicker, which kept Georgia's second drive alive. Marshall took it 52 yards for a touchdown that put the Bulldogs on top 13-0.

The Bulldogs made it a 20-0 game on a seven-play, 52-yard drive that included 22 rushing yards by Gurley and was capped off with a 22-yard touchdown grab by King.

With just over five minutes left in the second quarter, Murray led the Bulldogs on a 12-play, 96-yard scoring drive that put Georgia up 27-0. A 20-yard run by Ken Malcome and a 6-yard grab by King helped set up the score.

The Commodores broke up the shutout with a 29-yard field goal by Casey Spear with 1:51 left in the first half that made it a 27-3 game.

The Bulldogs drove 63 yards on 10 plays and used 3:34 to make it a 34-3 game with just under nine minutes left in the third quarter. During the drive, Gurley rushed for 12 yards and Chris Conley hauled in a 13-yard pass that set the Bulldogs up at the Vanderbilt five. Murray found Marlon Brown in the end zone for the touchdown.

Georgia got the ball back on downs at its own 39-yard line and got down to the Vanderbilt five on a 58-yard completion by Murray to Brown. Marshall fin- ished the drive with a two-yard touchdown run. Following the PAT, Georgia took a 41-3 lead with 6:03 left in the third quarter.

After getting the ball back on a missed field goal, Georgia scored on a three-play, 71-yard drive that saw Gurley go over 100 yards in the game on a 29-yard touchdown run that gave Georgia a 48-3 lead.

Coach Mark Richt said…

"Start to finish, they all played so hard. They got after it every snap and they played hard. I'm really proud of everyone. It was a great prep week. I don't have any complaints at all. We had a good plan and every- body flat got after it. That's the way you play Georgia football right there. It was a complete victory for our team."

TENNESSEE

Sept. 29, 2012 • Sanford Stadium - Athens, Ga.

In what proved to be an offensive showdown all night long, the Georgia Bulldogs ultimately prevailed with a 51-44 victory over Tennessee to move to 5-0 on the season. Aaron Murray led the Georgia passing attack, going 19-for-25 for 278 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Todd Gurley and Keith Marshall combined for 302 yards and five touch- downs. Alec Ogletree led the Georgia defense with 14 total tackles, including six unas- sisted tackles. Baccarri Rambo added nine tackles, while Sanders Commings finished with five tackles and two interceptions.

The Bulldogs jumped out to an early lead in the first quarter behind a pair of touch- downs from Gurley. Gurley scored the first points of the game at the 8:54 mark of the first quarter with a 2-yard run into the endzone, but Tennessee responded when Byron Moore returned a 35-yard interception just over a minute later. Marshall then exploded for a 75-yard touchdown run to put the Dawgs back in front, and a Derrick Brodus field goal at the 2:39 mark of the first quarter would trim the Georgia lead to four at 14-10. Gurley then recorded a 1-yard run into the endzone with 11 seconds remaining in the quarter to extend Georgia's lead to 21-10.

Gurley continued to dominate in the second quarter, as he led off with a 51-yard touchdown run, but Marshall Morgan missed the PAT as the Dawgs hung onto the lead at 27-10. Tennessee rallied late in the half, as A.J. Johnson scored on a 1-yard run at the 4:53 mark, and Zach Rogers followed with a 4-yard touchdown pass from Tyler Bray at the 2:55 mark. Derrick Brodus would miss the ensuing PAT, leaving the Vols trailing the Dawgs by a score of 27-23. Tennessee then scored just over two minutes later as Bray found Rajion Neal in the endzone for a 10-yard touchdwon pass that gave the Vols their first lead of the game at 30-27. Georgia would mount one last offensive drive over the final 42 seconds of the half to set up kicker Morgan for a 50-yard field goal as time expired to even the score at 30 apiece heading into the break.

Georgia came out strong offensively in the third quarter, scoring back-to-back touch- downs as Murray found receiver Michael Bennett in the endzone both times for scores of 8 yards and 32 yards. On the second of the two touchdowns, Morgan's point-after attempt was blocked, leaving the Bulldogs with a 43-30 lead with 6:32 remaining in the third quarter.

Tennessee's Cordarrelle Patterson scored on a 46-yard run at the 4:13 mark of the third quarter to pull the Vols back within striking distance, trailing 43-37. Just over a minute later, Marshall exploded for his second touchdown of the day, this time rush- ing for 72 yards for the score. The Bulldogs went for a two-point conversion and were rewarded for their efforts, as Murray found Marlon Brown in the endzone to extend the Georgia lead to 51-37.

Tennessee added a tounchdown on a 9-yard run from Neal to pull to within 51-44 with 8:56 remaining in the game. The Vols forced Georgia to punt late in the game, get- ting the ball back with just over seven minutes to play. Tennessee had its chances in the waning minutes of the game, getting the ball back three times in the final six minutes. The final three drives ended in turnovers, including two forced by Commings.

Coach Mark Richt said…

"It's nice to have a gut check and come out on top. A lot of things in the first half deflated us, but we realized where we were, and we rose to the occasion when we needed to. Marshall and Gurley are really fantastic players, and I wouldn't trade them for anything. Rambo and Ogletree had some rust, no doubt, but you can't replace their athleticism and their abil- ity to make plays. I'm glad we got them back and they got the rust out."

SOUTH CAROLINA

Oct. 6, 2012 • Williams-Brice Stadium - Columbia, S.C.

In a battle of undefeated Top-10 teams with SEC and BCS Championship aspirations, No. 5 Georgia (5-1, 3-1 SEC) fell short against No. 6 South Carolina (6-0, 4-0 SEC) by a score of 35-7. Quarterback Aaron Murray finished the game 11-for-31 with 109 yards, while Ken Malcome led the rushing attack for the Bulldogs (45 yards on 5 carries) and finished with the team's lone touchdown of the night. Malcolm Mitchell caught three passes for a total of 52 yards and finished the game with 71 yards on two kickoff returns, inlcuding a 48-yard return in the first quarter.

Amarlo Herrera paced the defense with 11 total tackles, including seven unassisted, while John Jenkins recorded five solo and three assisted tackles. All-America linebacker Jarvis Jones totaled four tackles, including one sack for a loss of nine yards. Jones now owns a team-leading total of 5.5 sacks on the season.

Georgia found itself in a hole early, trailing 21-0 in the first quarter. The Gamecocks scored on their first drive when quarterback Connor Shaw found Bruce Ellington for a 20-yard touchdown. On Georgia's ensuing drive, Murray's pass was intercepted by DeVonte Holloman, and South Carolina turned the turnover into another touchdown when Shaw connected with Rory Anderson for a 14-yard score. The Gamecocks finished their first quarter scoring with a 70-yard punt return by Ace Sanders.

The Georgia defense shut out the Gamecocks in the second quarter, allowing South Carolina to gain only 34 total yards in the quarter.The best scoring opportunity for Georgia came after a 15-play, 80-yard drive in which the team went for a touchdown on fourth and goal from the 2-yard line. Murray's pass to Rantavious Wooten came up short, however, and the play resulted in a turnover on downs.

The Bulldogs received the kick off to start the second half and achieved a first down before being forced to punt again. After the teams exchanged two more punts, South Carolina added another touchdown on a 4-play drive that ended with a 62-yard pass from Shaw to D.L. Moore and an ensuing 1-yard touchdown run by Lattimore.

John Jenkins blocked an attempted South Carolina field goal midway through the third quarter, but Georgia was unable to score at all during the quarter. South Carolina held onto the ball for the first 9:28 of the fourth quarter, and Shaw eventually finished the drive with a 7-yard rushing touchdown. The Bulldogs finally scored their first points of the game at the 1:55 mark of the fourth quarter on a 3-yard touchdown run from Malcome.

Coach Mark Richt said…

"Like I told the guys, we took a whipping, but the good news was that we all took it together. It was a team loss. We got beat by a very good team that was primed and ready to go. But that doesn't mean that the season is over for Georgia. We still have an opportunity to keep fighting and keep playing and winning. If we are able to do that, then we will have a chance to get back to Atlanta and that's where we want to be."

- The game was a top-10 matchup for the first time in series history with USC at #6 and Georgia at #5.
- Georgia saw its streak of consecutive wins in the regular season end at 15. Prior to this game, the last time Georgia lost a regular season game was last year against then #12 South Carolina in Athens 45-42 on Sept. 10.
- John Jenkins blocked a 33-yard field goal attempt by Adam Yates in the third quarter. It was the first field goal block by a Bulldog since 2009.
- Jarvis Jones registered a sack to give him 5.5 for the year and 19 in his Bulldog career.
- Game captains were junior QB Aaron Murray, senior CB Sanders Commings, senior LB Christian Robinson, and junior OT Kenarious Gates.

KENTUCKY

Oct. 20, 2012 • Commonwealth Stadium - Lexington, Ky.

The No. 11 University of Georgia football team outlasted the Kentucky Wildcats 29-24 on Saturday night in front of 54,553 fans and a Fox SportSouth televised audience at Commonwealth Stadium in Lexington, Ky. With the win, Georgia improves to 6-1 on the season and 4-1 in Southeastern Conference play. Kentucky dropped to 1-7 overall and 0-5 in SEC play.

Aaron Murray led the team's aerial attack, going 30-of-38 for a career-high 427 yards and four touchdowns. During the game, Murray set Georgia's all-time record for touchdown passes in a career, surpassing David Greene, who finished with 72.

The Wildcats struck first, taking a 7-0 lead on the opening drive of the game. Kentucky kept it on the ground for most of the 13-play, 84-yard drive, before Morgan Newton completed a four-yard touchdown pass to Aaron Boyd.

The Bulldogs tied it at 7-7 on its second possession of the game. After starting in the shadows of his own goal posts, Murray found King for a 66-yard touchdown pass.

Kentucky went up 14-7 with just under 12 minutes left in the half on a two-yard run by Newton. The Bulldogs followed with its second touchdown in as many drives. King set up the touchdown with a 46-yard catch that set the Bulldogs up with 1st-and-Goal at the Kentucky five. Two plays later, Murray found King in the middle of the end zone for a touchdown. A missed point after brought the score to 14-13.

With just under two minutes left in the half, Murray orchestrated a drive that resulted in a 26-yard field goal by Marshall Morgan that sent the Bulldogs into the locker room holding a 16-14 lead.

In the second half the Wildcats marched down to the Georgia 16 before Geathers tackled Newton for a four-yard loss and Cornelius Washington batted down a pass. Kentucky had to settle for a field goal that allowed it to retake the lead at 17-16.

With 7:11 left in the third quarter, Murray led the Bulldogs on a six-play, 62-yard drive that was capped off with a 22-yard touchdown pass to Conley. Georgia went for the two-point conversion, but did not convert, giving it a five-point lead at 22-17.

With Georgia punting after a three-and-out, Kentucky was flagged for running into the kicker, giving the Bulldogs a fresh set of downs. Murray found Lynch over the middle for 22 yards on the first play after the penalty. Murray found Lynch from 10 yards out for the touchdown that made it a two-possession game at 29-17, following the Morgan extra point.

The Wildcats made it a one-possession game when it orchestrated a 10-play, 75-yard drive that resulted in a touchdown that made it a 29-24 game. The Wildcats attempted the onside kick, but Connor Norman recovered, giving Georgia the ball back near midfield with 3:59 left in the game. The Bulldogs controlled the clock during the final minutes, giving the Wildcats possession with 15 seconds on the clock. Kentucky was unable to score, sealing the 29-24 win for Georgia.

Coach Mark Richt said…

"It's great to be able to go on the road in the SEC and get the win. I think Kentucky did a fantastic job tonight. My hat's off to coach (Joker) Phillips and his team. I'm also pleased with our team to do what they had to do to win the ballgame. A lot of big plays had to be made. We had to play good down the stretch in order to win it."

Worth Noting…

- Aaron Murray the school career TD pass record with 75 while completing a career-high 30 passes for a career-high 427 yards. Murray's 427 yards ranks as the second best in the SEC this year behind Texas A&M's Johnny Manziel's 453 against Arkansas.
- Tavarres King had a career-high 9 catches for a game-high 188 yards and tied his career high with two TDs. This marks his fifth career 100-yard game and his second this season.
- Sophomore SE Malcolm Mitchell finished with a career high 9 receptions for 103 yards. This was the first time since the 2010 Florida game when the Bulldogs had two 100-yard receivers in a game.
- Game captains were John Jenkins, Josh Harvey-Clemons, Chris Burnette and Abry Jones.
- Harvey-Clemons is the first true freshman to be named a captain since Rennie Curran in 2007.

FLORIDA

Oct. 27, 2012 • EverBank Field - Jacksonville, Fla.

In the annual neutral-site matchup between Georgia and Florida in Jacksonville, the Bulldogs came away victorious by a score of 17-9 over their archrival. The Bulldogs forced six turnovers against the third-ranked Gators, and the Dawgs now control their own destiny in a quest to return to the SEC Championship for the second consecutive season.

The Georgia defense proved to be the story of the game, holding Florida without a touchdown on the day. Junior All-American outside linebacker Jarvis Jones was the spark for the defensive unit, recording a career-high 13 tackles (12 solo), including 4.5 tackles for loss for 24 yards and three sacks. He also added two fumble recoveries and a pair of forced fumbles.

Offensively, Georgia quarterback Aaron Murray finished with 150 yards and three interceptions on 12-of-24 passing. Malcolm Mitchell was Murray's top target, finishing with 74 yards and a touchdown on five catches.

Georgia forced a turnover on Florida's first drive when Damian Swann blitzed and sacked Florida quarterback Jeff Driskel to force a fumble that Jones recovered at the Florida 20 yard line. Three plays later, freshman Todd Gurley rushed over the left guard for a 10-yard score that gave the Bulldogs a 7-0 advantage early.

The Gators responded with a 70-yard drive but the Georgia defense held Florida to a field goal, making it a 7-3 game. An interception at the 42-yard line that was returned to the 11-yard line by the Gators set them up with 1st-and-10 at the Georgia 11. Once again, the Bulldog defense held strong, forcing another field goal to keep a 7-6 lead.

With less that a minute to play in the half and the Gators on the Georgia five yard line, Bacarri Rambo intercepted a pass in the end zone to prevent the Gators from scoring and send the Bulldogs into the locker room holding a 7-6 lead. The interception by Rambo moved him into a tie for second all-time at UGA with 14.

With less than 10 minutes to go in the game, Swann picked off Driskel and returned it 15 yards to the UF 25. Georgia extended its lead to 10-6 with a 29-yard field goal by Morgan. The interception by Swann was the second forced turnover of the day for the sophomore.

The Gators cut the lead to one at 10-9 with a 50-yard field goal with 9:41 left to play. The Bulldogs responded with a seven play, 75-yard drive that put Georgia up 17-9. After a 10-yard completion to Gurley, 18-yard pass to Marlon Brown and a 12-yard completion to Mitchell, Murray found Mitchell streaking down the sideline for a 45-yard touchdown pass.

On the following drive, Georgia forced its sixth turnover and second in the end zone. Driskel marched the Gators 74 yards before Jones forced a fumble that was recovered by Sanders Commings in the end zone for a touchback that sealed the 17-9 victory for the Bulldogs.

Coach Mark Richt said…

"I'd say that we weren't soft. The defense rose to the occasion, and everyone fought their tails off. There was a lot of emotion and two really good football teams getting after it. We came out on top. I'm really proud of our players and coaches, and our fans were tremendous. Our seniors played well, and I know it's a game they'll remember for the rest of their lives."

Worth Noting…

- For the first time in the series since 1988, Georgia held Florida without a touchdown. Also, Georgia handed the Gators their first loss of the season, spoiling a perfect start for the first time since 1966 when Florida was 7-0 entering this game (the Bulldogs won 27-10).
- For the first time since a three-year stretch from 1987-89, Georgia has won two straight over Florida. The Bulldogs improve to 49-40-2 in the series.
- All-American linebacker Jarvis Jones registered a career-high 13 tackles, 4.5 TFL, 2 forced fumbles, 2 fumble recoveries and 3 sacks. In his two-year career at Georgia, he has tallied 22 sacks which ranks 7th in school history.
- Todd Gurley scored his team-leading 11th touchdown of the season and he carried the ball for a career-high 27 times.
- Captains were Aaron Murray, Connor Norman, Chris Burnette, and Cornelius Washington.

OLE MISS

Nov. 3, 2012 • Sanford Stadium - Athens, Ga.

The No. 6 Bulldogs improved to 8-1 (6-1 SEC) on the season with a dominating 37-10 victory over the Ole Miss Rebels "Between the Hedges" in Sanford Stadium. QB Aaron Murray tossed four touchdown passes to four different receivers, including leading receiver Marlon Brown who picked up a game-high 113 yards and a touchdown on three catches.

Alec Ogletree led the way on defense for Georgia, recording a team-best 11 tackles, including a sack, two tackles for loss and an interception. Bacarri Rambo and Garrison Smith each finished with seven tackles, while Damian Swann added three tackles, a sack and two fumble recoveries.

The Rebels took a 10-0 lead on a field goal on the opening drive and an eight-play, 43-yard drive early in the second quarter. The TD drive was finished off with a 13-yard pass from QB Bo Wallace to Tanner Burns. Georgia answered on the next drive with a 66-yard TD pass from Murray to Brown to trim the Ole Miss lead to 10-7 following the extra point from freshman kicker Marshall Morgan.

After the Georgia defense forced Ole Miss to punt with just under four minutes left to play in the first half, Murray then connected on four of his next five passes to put the Bulldogs in prime scoring position at the Ole Miss 38-yard line. With 12 seconds on the clock and the pocket collapsing, Murray scrambled to keep the drive alive. He found Tavarres King at the goal line for 40 yards and a touchdown that sent the Bulldogs into the locker room holding a 14-10 lead following Morgan's extra point.

The Bulldogs continued firing on all cylinders offensively in the second half, scoring touchdowns on each of their first two possessions to take a 28-10 lead. Georgia scored their first touchdown of the half on a 42-yard pass from Murray to Malcolm Mitchell to cap a 79-yard drive that took just 2:02 off the clock. The second touchdown finished off a six play, 76-yard drive that ended with fullback Alexander Ogletree running the ball in from eight yards out for his first career touchdown. Alexander's twin brother, Alec, helped Georgia add two points with a tackle of Jeff Scott in the end zone for a safety late in the third quarter.

Midway through the fourth quarter, freshman tailback Todd Gurley had a 31-yard gain to set up a 23-yard touchdown pass from Murray to Rantavious Wooten that sealed the 37-10 victory for Georgia following Morgan's PAT.

No. 6 Georgia returns to action next Saturday when they renew the Deep South's oldest rivalry with a 7 p.m. contest in Auburn, Ala., against the Auburn Tigers. The game will be aired on ESPNU. With a win over the Tigers, Georgia would clinch the SEC Eastern Division and would advance to the SEC Championship in Atlanta for the second consecutive season.

Coach Mark Richt said…

"In the first half, I thought they (Ole Miss) outplayed us, but we outscored them...We were fortunate to make some play to get it going in the right direction. We're one game away from our goal of winning the Eastern Division. We've got a lot of work to do between now and then. It's never easy going to Auburn. They'll be playing out of their minds. We've got to be prepared for that."

Worth Noting…

- Georgia shut out an opponent in the second half for the second time this season (also did so against Vanderbilt).
- Alec Ogletree had a safety at the 0:49 mark in the third quarter, marking the Bulldogs' first safety since Brandon Boykin had one in the 2012 Outback Bowl.
- QB Aaron Murray now owns a school-record 80 career TD passes, which ranks sixth in SEC history.
- Junior FB Alexander Ogletree rushed for an eight-yard TD, the first of his career. He also tied his career-high with two catches for 12 yards.
- Freshman punter Collin Barber kicked a career-long 60-yard punt in the first quarter, and it was the longest punt since Drew Butler's 62-yarder vs. LSU in last year's SEC Championship.
- Soph. SS Corey Moore got his first career start on offense at wideout
- Captains were junior OLB Jarvis Jones, RS sophomore ILB Kosta Vavlas, sophomore C David Andrews and senior DE Cornelius Washington.

AUBURN

No. 10, 2012 • Jordan-Hare Stadium - Auburn, Ala.

Aaron Murray threw for three touchdowns to lead No. 5 Georgia (9-1, 7-1) to its second-straight SEC East title and a spot in the SEC Title game with a 38-0 win over the Auburn Tigers (2-8, 0-7) in Auburn, Ala. Murray also passed Eli Manning for fifth-place in Southeastern Conference history for touchdown passes.

Murray finished with 208 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Bulldogs through the air on 18-of-24 passing, completing 10-straight passes to start the game. Six different receivers saw action, with Tavarres King leading the way with 73 yards and a touchdown on three catches. Malcolm Mitchell finished with 47 yards on five catches and a touchdown, while Chris Conley was also on the receiving end of a touchdown pass. Todd Gurley went over 100 yards for the seventh time this season, finishing with 116 yards and a touchdown on 11 attempts. Keith Marshall went over the century mark for the third time this season, rushing for 105 yards and a touchdown on eight carries.

The Bulldog defense racked up four sacks, one interception and forced and recovered a fumble. Alec Ogletree led the team with 10 tackles, including nine solo stops and a sack for a loss of eight yards. Bacarri Rambo added eight tackles, seven of which were unassisted and grabbed Georgia's only interception. Shawn Williams and Jarvis Jones finished with five and four tackles, respectively. Jones also recorded two sacks for a loss of 11 yards.

The Bulldogs did not waste any time getting on the board, using a 49-yard run by Gurley to set up a six-yard touchdown pass to Conley to put the Bulldogs up 7-0, following the Marshall Morgan extra point, on the opening possession of the game. Georgia made it a 14-0 game on its next possession. Murray spread the ball around to three different receivers for 36 yards and rushed for 15 yards before finding Mitchell in the end zone.

King did his part to help the Bulldogs to a 28-0 lead with 5:09 left to play in the first half. Facing third-and-seven from the Auburn 17, Murray lobbed a passed down the right sideline to an open King, who managed to get a foot down for the score that put Georgia up 21-0, after the Morgan PAT. On the next drive, King hauled in a 55-yard pass over the middle that made it first-and-goal and set up the Bulldogs fourth touchdown of the half. Gurley finished the five-play, 90-yard drive with a six-yard touchdown run that put Georgia up 28-0 after the extra point.

Georgia received the ball to start the second half and marched 73-yards to the Auburn two-yard line. The Bulldogs tacked on three points on a field goal by Morgan that put them up 31-0 with just over eight minutes left in the third quarter.

After the Bulldogs forced an Auburn three-and-out late in the third quarter, Marshall broke free for a 62-yard touchdown on the second play of the drive to extend Georgia's lead to 38-0, following the PAT.

Coach Mark Richt said…

"Obviously, we played well. I was really proud of everybody. It was a very outstanding performance by everybody--offense, defense, special teams. Great crowd for Georgia tonight. I'm just very thankful to have the opportunity to go back to Atlanta. I'm very excited about winning the East."

Worth Noting…

- Georgia will represent the East in the SEC Championship game on Dec. 1 in Atlanta at the Georgia Dome. This will be the fifth trip for the Bulldogs, all under Mark Richt, including second in a row. Georgia is 2-2 in these games, winning the SEC in 2002 and 2005.
- The shutout was the first by the Bulldogs against Auburn since 1978 when they won 28-0 in Auburn. The 38-point margin of victory matches last year's 45-7 win in Athens and tied for the second largest margin of victory in the series. The largest was a 41-0 win in 1946 in Columbus.
- Georgia's defense blanked Auburn for its seventh shutout in the Mark Richt era including third in the SEC. The last one came to Vandy in 2010 (43-0) and the first on the road since 2006 when it blanked South Carolina 18-0.

GEORGIA SOUTHERN

Nov. 17, 2012 • Sanford Stadium - Athens, Ga.

The No. 5 Georgia Bulldogs set a new school record for touchdowns in a season in Saturday's 45-14 win over in-state rival Georgia Southern at Sanford Stadium. Aaron Murray's pass to receiver Chris Conley late in the third quarter gave the Bulldogs their 55th TD of the year - breaking the record of 54 attained in both the 1942 and 2011 seasons.

The Bulldogs improve to 10-1 on the season heading into next week's regular-season finale vs. another Peach State rival, Georgia Tech, Nov. 24 at noon. Georgia today reached the 10-win plateau for the 20th time in school history, doing so in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 2007-08.

On the opening drive of the game, the Bulldogs got rolling as Murray found Lynch for a 49-yard gain that brought Georgia down to the Georgia Southern 29 yard line. Murray found his tight end a second time, this time for a 15-yard gain, to get to the 14. Then on first and goal, Murray appeared to scramble in for the touchdown, but the play was reviewed and brought back as it was ruled that his knee was down. But on the next play, the rookie Gurley broke into the end zone and this time it stood up, as the Bulldogs took a 7-0 lead following the extra point with 11:21 on the clock in the first quarter, which is where it remained at the close of the first quarter.

The Eagles knotted things up at 7-7 early in the second quarter on a one-yard run for quarterback Jerick McKinnon with 11:53 to go in the period.

On Georgia's next drive Gurley surpassed the 1,000-yard mark on the season, ultimately setting up a Marshall Morgan 37-yard field goal with 6:25 to play in the first half that made it 10-7.

The Bulldogs closed the first half strong, as Murray mixed up his options to find King and Jay Rome on consecutive throws to get down into GSU territory, before completing a 24-yard pass to Mitchell in the end zone to make it 17-7 at the end of the half.

Conley got in on the action with 8:51 on the clock in the third quarter as Murray found the sophomore for the 13-yard touchdown as Georgia went up 24-7 following the extra point. The defense also came out hot to start the second, forcing consecutive three-and-outs on Georgia Southern's first two possessions.

Georgia went up 31-7 when Murray found a streaking King for the 43-yard completion and the score with 5:07 remaining in the third, and Conley tacked on his second of the game as he reeled in the 33-yarder with 2:39 left to push the home team's lead to 38-7 - marking the school-record setting 55th Georgia touchdown of the season.

GSU added their second touchdown of the day as McKinnon ran in it 23 yards with 6:41 remaining in the game, making it 38-14, but the Bulldogs weren't finished, as Welch capped a solid drive with the touchdown pass to Scott-Wesley with 3:13 remaining - increasing the school-record season touchdown total to 56 and giving both players their first career scores on the play as Georgia wrapped up the victory, 45-14.

Georgia moves to 5-0 all-time vs. the Eagles, all of those meetings coming in Athens. GSU dropped to 8-3 on the season with today's loss.

Coach Mark Richt said…

"It was a very good game. It was hard fought. Georgia Southern has an outstanding football team. They run their offense well. They're well coached, even the little things like sprinting to the other side at the end of a quarter. They have a plan for everything, and they execute it well. We got a couple of breaks in the first half. If not for the chop block penalty, they may score right there."

- Todd Gurley became just the second Georgia freshman in school history and the 11th UGA player overall to record at least 1,000 yards rushing in a single season.
- Georgia scored six TDs on the day, giving the Bulldogs a school record 56 TDs this year. The old mark was 54 set in 1942 (12 games) and in 2011 (13 games).
- Georgia collected its 10th win of the season, which is the 20th 10-win season in school history.
- Senior ILB Christian Robinson made his first start of the year and 16th of his career. He last started in the 2012 Outback Bowl.
- RS sophomore quarterback Parker Welch connected with receiver Justin Scott-Wesley for a 13-yard TD in the fourth quarter. It was the first career TD pass for Welch and the first career TD catch for Scott-Wesley.
- Captains were safety Connor Norman, flanker Tavarres King, safety Bacarri Rambo and linebacker Christian Robinson.

GEORGIA TECH

Nov. 24, 2012 • Sanford Stadium - Athens, Ga.

The No. 3 University of Georgia football team handled in-state rival Georgia Tech a 42-10 loss in front of 92,746 fans and a nationally-televised ESPN audience in the final regular-season game. With the win, the Bulldogs move to 11-1 on the season, while Georgia Tech falls to 6-6. Georgia improves to 62-37-5 in the all time series and is 10-1 in the last 11 meetings. Georgia also set a new school record in points scored in a season with 456, besting the previous record of 450, set in 2002 over a 14-game season.

Mitchell took the opening kickoff 47 yards to set the Bulldogs up with 1st-and-10 at the Georgia Tech 44 yard line. After pickups of 11, 15 and 15 yards, Gurley capped off a 29-yard opening drive performance with a three-yard touchdown run that put Georgia up 7-0, following the Marshall Morgan extra point.

The Yellow Jackets moved all the way down to the Georgia one-yard line before Rambo forced his second fumble of the game and returned it 49 yards to the 50-yard line. Eight plays and less than three minutes later, Gurley found the end zone for his second rushing touchdown of the game and put Georgia up 14-0, after the Morgan PAT. The Yellow Jackets answered on the following drive, driving down to the Georgia 21 before being stopped on third down and being forced to settle for a 38-yard field goal that made it a 14-3 game.

Murray completed a 57-yard pass down the sideline to Mitchell to set the Bulldogs up with 1st-and-10 at the GT 28. Marshall raced 15 yards into the end zone two plays later to put Georgia up 21-3, after the PAT, after a three play, 85-yard drive that took just 29 seconds off the clock.

After Rambo recorded his 16th career interception, and his third turnover of the game, Gurley and Marshall combined for 62 yards on the ground on Georgia's next scoring drive before Murray found McGowan in the back corner of the end zone for a touchdown that helped Georgia to a 28-3 lead.

After forcing a three-and-out to start the second half, Georgia got the ball back and went 59 yards on seven plays that took 2:08 off the clock and gave the Bulldogs a 35-3 lead. The drive culminated in a 24-yard touchdown pass from Murray to Jay Rome, the first of his career. The Bulldogs tacked on another touchdown with a 17-yard run by Marshall with six minutes left in the third quarter that made it a 42-3 game.

The Yellow Jackets added a touchdown midway through the fourth quarter on a six-play, 71-yard drive that made it a 42-10 game.

Georgia is set to make its fifth appearance in the SEC Championship game in Atlanta, Ga., next weekend. Kickoff is set for 4 p.m. and the game will be televised on CBS.

Coach Mark Richt said…

"This was a game that everybody was worried about us looking ahead. You don't do that when you're playing Georgia Tech. This game means a lot for us. Our coaches prepared hard, they were diligent, and the players took to the coaching. I thought we played a superb game. I'm so proud of everybody. I could not have asked for a better day than today. Our goal was to win every phase of the game, for every unit to win."

ALABAMA

Dec. 1, 2012 • Georgia Dome - Atlanta, Ga.

The third-ranked University of Georgia football team came up just short, falling 32-28 to No. 2 Alabama on Saturday evening in front of a capacity crowd at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta, Ga., in the Southeastern Conference Championship game. Georgia ends the regular season with an overall record of 11-2, which includes a 7-1 mark inleague play, while Alabama improves to 12-1 and 7-1 in the SEC.

Georgia marched 55 yards before the drive stalled on third-and-11 at the Alabama 37. The Bulldogs dialed up a fake punt that saw Arthur Lynch find Sanders Commings over the middle for a 17-yard pickup that set up first-and-10 at the Alabama 20. Two plays later, Murray completed a 19-yard touchdown pass to Rome to put the Bulldogs up 7-0, following the Marshall Morgan extra point. The completion allowed Murray to pass Peyton Manning for most touchdown passes in SEC history with 90.

Alabama looked to answer, making its way down to the Georgia one-yard line. The Crimson Tide fumbled the ball, recovered it, but the play pushed the Crimson Tide back to the Georgia five. On third-and-goal, Sanders Commings intercepted AJ McCarron in the end zone for a touchback.

The Tide tied the game at seven late in the first half on a 41-yard touchdown run by Eddie Lacy. Alabama then intercepted a Murray pass and drove all the way to the Georgia five-yard line with five seconds left in the half, Alabama kicked a field goal that sent the Crimson Tide into the half holding a 10-7 lead.

On the opening drive of the second half, Georgia drove 75 yards on 10 plays to take a 14-10 lead on a three-yard Gurley run. The Crimson Tide looked poised to answer on its next possession, driving 43 yards on 11 plays, but a tipped passed forced Alabama to attempt a 49-yard field goal. With Cade Foster on to attempt the field goal, Cornelius Washington came up with the block, which was recovered by Ogletree and taken back for a touchdown that put the Bulldogs up 21-10, following the Morgan PAT.

Alabama didn't wait long to score, taking the ball 43 yards on 11 plays for the touchdown by T.J. Yeldon. The Crimson Tide went for two and converted to make it a three-point game at 21-18. On its next possession, the Tide took a 25-21 lead on a one-yard run by Lacy that capped off a seven-play, 74-yard drive.

The Bulldogs retook the lead on the next possession. A 17-yard completion from Murray to Mitchell gave Georgia first-and-10 at their own 24. Murray then found King for a pickup of 45 yards that put the Bulldogs inside the Alabama 15. Gurley found the end zone two plays later on a 10-yard run that made it a 28-25 game, following the Morgan extra point.

With just under five minutes on the clock and with the ball on the Georgia 45-yard line, McCarron threw a 45-yard touchdown pass to Amari Cooper that put the Crimson Tide up four at 32-28.

Georgia flipped the field on the final drive of the game, traveling all of the way down to the eight-yard line, but time ran out on the Bulldogs, with the clock winding down as the final pass was caught just short of the goal line.

Coach Mark Richt said…

"I'm really proud of our players. It was a great football game, but unfortunately we ended up on the wrong side of the scoreboard. I think Alabama's a great football team, obviously, but I think we're good, too. The boys gave a great effort, and I'm really proud of our coaches, as well. Somebody just asked me what I thought the difference was, and the only thing I can think of is that we just ran out of time."

- Captains were junior OG Chris Burnette, senior FS Bacarri Rambo, junior OLB Jarvis Jones and senior N John Jenkins.

NEBRASKA

Jan. 1, 2013 • Florida Citrus Bowl - Orlando, Fla.

The No. 7 Georgia football team handed the 16th-ranked Nebraska Cornhuskers a 45-31 loss in front of 59,712 fans and a nationally televised ABC audience in the Capital One Bowl, held in Orlando, Fla. The Bulldogs finished the season with a 12-2 record, which included a 7-1 mark in the Southeastern Conference and a SEC Eastern Division Title. The 2012 squad becomes just the third team in school history to finish with 12 wins in a season.

Aaron Murray finished with 427 yards and five touchdowns on 18-for-33 passing, setting Georgia bowl records in touchdown passes, yards and the longest touchdown pass. Tavarres King was Murray's top target, picking up 104 yards and a touchdown on four catches. Chris Conley was Georgia's leading receiver, finishing with 136 yards and two touchdowns. Keith Marshall and Arthur Lynch were also on the receiving end of touchdown passes.

For the second time in as many bowl games, Georgia took a 2-0 lead on a safety with 11:49 on the clock. A blocked punt set up the safety, as the ball went through the back of the end zone for the score.

On the second Georgia drive of the game, Murray led the Bulldogs on an 80-yard drive that was capped off by a 29-yard completion to Lynch that put the Bulldogs up 9-0 with just under eight minutes remaining in the first quarter.

Nebraska answered with a pair of touchdowns to take a 14-9 lead. The first came after a seven-play, 75-yard yard that made it 9-7. Two plays later, the Cornhuskers intercepted a Murray pass and ran it back for a touchdown that gave them the lead.

The lead didn't last, as Murray found King for a 75-yard touchdown reception on the second play of the drive that allowed the Bulldogs to retake the lead at 16-14. Gurley scored the touchdown, taking a direct snap 24 yards to the end zone.

The Huskers responded with a six-play, 44-yard drive that resulted in a 39-yard field goal that made it a 23-17 game midway through the second quarter. After a Georgia three-and-out, Nebraska took a 24-23 lead on a 16-yard pass to Rex Burkhead.

On the opening drive of the second half, Nebraska orchestrated a 13-play drive that resulted in a two-yard touchdown run by Burkhead that extended Nebraska's lead to 31-23.

The Bulldogs answered on the following drive, driving 79 yards on six plays for a touchdown. The drive was highlighted by a 49-yard touchdown grab by Chris Conley. Looking to tie the game, Murray found Rhett McGowan at the goal line to complete the two-point conversion to tie the game at 31 with just over seven minutes left in the third quarter.

Georgia scored touchdowns on its next two possessions to take a 45-31 lead. The first touchdown was set up by a 31-yard completion to Justin Scott-Wesley and capped off by a 24-yard touchdown grab by Marshall. On the next Bulldog possession, Murray found a wide-open Conley over the middle for an 87-yard touchdown reception that proved to be the game-sealing catch.

Coach Mark Richt said…

"It's really fun to win one of these. We had lost our last two bowl games, so we were getting kind of tired of that. We worked so hard to continue to get better, and this year we had another really good season with the SEC East. So now, we wanted to win this bowl to maybe prove to ourselves that we're one of the better teams in the country, so I'm just really thankful for the victory."

Worth Noting…

- The Bulldogs became just the third team in school history to register at least 12 wins in a single season.
- Georgia improved to 27-18-3 in bowl games, and the game also marked the Bulldogs' record 16th consecutive trip to the postseason.
- Georgia's 45 points was a new bowl record, as the old mark stood at 44 points in the 2009 Independence Bowl victory over Texas A&M.
- Jarvis Jones recorded two sacks in the game to give him a school record 14.5 on the year. He also set a school record with 24.5 TFL in a single season, breaking the previous mark of 23.5 set by David Pollack in 2002. Pollack held the previous single-season sack record, as well (13.5).
- QB Aaron Murray threw a school record-tying five TD passes in the game. The five TD passes, plus 427 passing yards and an 87-yard TD pass to WR Chris Conley, were all Georgia bowl records.
- Captains were seniors Tavarres King (FLK), Shawn Williams (SS) and Ty Frix (SN), plus juniors Aaron Murray (QB) and Jarvis Jones (OLB).

Head Coach Mark Richt

Head Coach Mark Richt came to Georgia with the goal of taking the lid off a program that had not won an SEC title in 20 years. After 12 seasons between the hedges, he's demonstrated what that means by winning two SEC Championships (2002, '05), five SEC Eastern Division titles and tied for another, and his 118-40 record is fourth best in the country in winning percentage among active coaches (.747). And his emphasis on graduation has come to fruition as 228 Bulldog players have earned their degrees during his tenure.

Richt was named SEC Coach of the Year in both 2002 and 2005. His record against non-conference teams is 48-8 and his teams are 41-11 when playing in an opponent's home stadium.

Richt is also one of only six coaches in history to win two SEC championships (2002, 2005) in his first five years, and one of only five head coaches in SEC history to record four straight 10-win seasons (2002-05). The respect he has nationally was demonstrated in 2010 when Richt was named to the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees.

The excitement produced by Richt's teams on the field has been matched by many other aspects surrounding the program. Richt has generated an atmosphere of excitement and unity among the Georgia people. Georgia supporters and fans became impressed with his sincerity, openness, family values, and the casual and genuine way he carried himself. They liked his ideas on building a football program, his commitment to discipline, and the importance he placed on standards of excellence on and off the field.

And they liked the way he refused to set limitations on what would be a satisfactory season. "I like to set our goals high," he said. "I never want to put a ceiling on what we can accomplish."

Richt also had a reputation for developing quarterbacks at FSU and that has continued at UGA. David Greene was named SEC Freshman of the Year in 2001 and in '02, Greene led the SEC in passing efficiency and was the consensus choice for All-SEC first team. By the end of his career, Greene had become the SEC's all-time leading passer (11,528 yards) and set the NCAA Division 1-A record for career victories by a starting QB with 42. D.J. Shockley followed Greene in 2005 and led the SEC in passing efficiency. Matthew Stafford came next (2006-08) and set the Georgia record for season total offense in 2008 (3,499 yards) and finished third in career passing yardage (7,731). In 2010, Aaron Murray finished second nationally in passing efficiency among freshman quarterbacks and in 2011 set the school record for most TD passes in a single season (35 breaking the old mark of 25 by Matthew Stafford). He broke it again in 2012 with 36 and is the only QB in SEC history to throw for more than 3,000 yards three consecutive years.

The NFL is also looking Georgia's way on a regular basis. Sixty-four of Richt's players have been chosen in the NFL draft over the last eleven years including eight chosen in the 2002 NFL draft--the most Georgia players ever selected in a single year.

RICHT IN RARE COMPANY

Mark Richt is one of only five men in NCAA Division IA history to record 115 or more wins in his first 12 seasons as a head coach.

Mark Richt Year by Year

2012: In racing to the SEC Eastern Division title, Richt's teams defeated rivals Tennessee, Florida, Auburn, and Georgia Tech all in the same season for the second straight year. In the 32-28 loss to #2 Alabama in the SEC title game, the third-ranked 'Dawgs came within a few yards and a few seconds of earning a trip to the BCS national title game. The 'Dogs defeated Nebraska, 45-31, in the Capital One Bowl.

2011: Georgia won ten or more games for the seventh time in Richt's 11 years. The 'Dogs defeated rivals Tennessee, Florida, Auburn, and Georgia Tech all in the same season for the first time since 1981.

2010: With the loss of several key players during the season, the Dogs had the first losing season in the Richt era but still managed victories over rivals Tennessee and Georgia Tech.

2009: Georgia upset #7 Georgia Tech in the regular season finale and then won its fourth straight bowl game to complete the season at 8-5.

2008: Georgia finished with a 10-3 mark and number ten final national ranking—the sixth time in seven years the Bulldogs won ten or more games and also finished among the nation's top ten teams in the final national polls.

2007: One of the youngest teams in the country, was 4-2 after six games but won the last seven in a row including victories over rivals Florida, Auburn, and Georgia Tech to finish 11-2. The 'Dogs defeated 10th ranked Hawai'i in The Allstate Sugar Bowl and finished No. 2 in the final AP poll and No. 3 in the coaches poll.

2006: After starting out 5-0, his 2006 team struggled through the middle of the schedule, but rebounded to defeat three top 20 teams in a row: #5 Auburn, #16 Georgia Tech, and #14 Virginia Tech in the Chick-fil-A Bowl. He was chosen to coach the 2007 Hula Bowl game in Hawaii.

2005: Picked to finish third in the SEC East, his 2005 team exceeded all expectations with a 10-2 regular season finish and SEC championship defeating third-ranked LSU in the title game. He was elected 2005 SEC Coach of the Year by the SEC Coaches.

2004: His 2004 team finished 10-2, won a third straight bowl game, and finished in the nation's top six in the final national rankings for the third consecutive season. Along the way in '04, the 'Dogs defeated defending national champion LSU, Georgia Tech for the fourth straight time and upended Florida for the first time since 1997. DE David Pollack became the most decorated defensive player in Georgia history with a third straight first team All-America selection and was recipient of the Lombardi, Bednarik, Lott, and Hendricks Trophies.

2003: Richt led the 'Dogs to the SEC title game for the second time in a row in '03, defeated Purdue in the Capital One Bowl, and had the 'Dogs in the top ten again with a final USA Today/ESPN Coaches ranking of 6th and a final AP ranking of 7th. Richt's team ranked 2nd nationally in Scoring Defense (14.5 ppg), 4th in Total Defense (276.86 ypg), 6th in Passing Defense (174.5 ypg), and 14th nationally in Turnover Margin (+.79).

2002: 'Dogs go 13-1, win first SEC championship in 20 years, defeated Florida State in the Nokia Sugar Bowl, and finished the season with a number three national ranking. Georgia's championship run was a complete team effort, with the Dogs winning five games by a touchdown or less. Among Richt's team were three first team All-Americans and eight first team All-SEC performers. Richt himself was a consensus choice as SEC Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the Bear Bryant National Coach of the Year Award. In addition, the '02 Bulldogs led the SEC in both scoring offense (32.2 ppg) and scoring defense (15.1 ppg).

2001: By the time his inaugural season in 2001 came to a close (8-4), he had become the first Georgia coach since H.J. Stegeman in 1920 to win eight games in his inaugural season. He had also handed Tennessee its only regular season defeat (in Knoxville on national television) and beaten arch rival Georgia Tech (for the first time since 1997) is career as a Bulldog began as a Christmas present that actually came the day after most gifts had been opened. On Dec. 26, 2000, Richt was named head coach at the University of Georgia after serving on the staff at Florida State for 15 years—the last seven as offensive coordinator.

Richt, a 1982 graduate of the University of Miami, coached the quarterbacks for 14 seasons at FSU. As offensive coordinator, he developed offenses that were among the most prolific in college football history while becoming one of country's most respected coaches.

Under Richt's direction, the FSU offense had been a national leader. In this seven years as offensive coordinator, the Seminoles finished in the nation's top five in scoring offense on five occasions, top 12 in total offense five times, and top 12 in passing offense five times. His 2000 offense finished the regular season ranked first nationally in total offense (549.0 ypg), first in passing offense (384.0 ypg), and third in scoring offense (42.4 ppg).

Richt sent six FSU quarterbacks into the NFL between 1987 and 2000. In addition to Weinke (Carolina Panthers), Washington Redskin Casey Weldon was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy in 1991. His teammate at FSU, Brad Johnson (now Richt's brother-in-law), was a Pro Bowl selection for Washington in 2000 and led the Tampa Bay Bucs to the Super Bowl title in 2003. Other Richt pro proteges include Danny Kanell (New York Giants), Danny McManus (Kansas City Chiefs) and Peter Tom Willis (Chicago Bears).

A native of Omaha, Nebraska, Richt played QB for the Miami Hurricanes under Howard Schnellenberger. Het spent most of his career at Miami as a backup to former Buffalo Bills star Jim Kelly. In one of Richt's years at Miami, his QB teammates included Kelly, Vinny Testaverde, Bernie Kosar, and quarterbacks coach Earl Morral.

Richt is married to the former Katharyn Francis of Tallahassee. The couple have four children - Jonathan (3/11/90), a senior quarterback at Mars Hill College, David (12/1/94), Zach (5/15/96), and Anya (2/13/97). Jon was married to the former Anna Cearley, in May 2010.

Building a Family

Richt married Katharyn in 1987. They have four children. Two came along the usual way — Jon and David. But two came in a very special way.

"We were in Sunday School class one day talking about the ills of society," said Richt. "We explored questions like 'who's in charge of taking care of the poor and the elderly.' We felt like the church should do its share."

Also, Katharyn's brother and sister-in-law had previously adopted children from the Ukraine.

Months later, Katharyn was in the Ukraine, a former republic of the Soviet Union, arranging the adoption of two children, classmates in the same orphanage. She spent 31 days there while Mark spent about eight days. When they returned in July, 1999, they had Zach and Anya, in tow.

"They have been a special blessing to all our family," said Katharyn.

Uga, The Mascot Legacy

Although the University of Georgia is now known as the home of Uga, the pure white English bulldog, several mascots led the Red and Black before Frank W. Seiler provided the current lineage beginning in 1956.

1890s

1940s

The Goat, Feb. 22, 1892

Georgia's mascot for its first football game against Auburn, February 22, 1892 in Atlanta, Ga., was a goat. Old newspaper clippings indicate that the goat wore a black coat with red U.G. letters on each side. He also had on a hat with ribbons all down his high horns, and the Auburn fans yelled throughout the game "shoot the billy-goat."

Trilby, 1894

In 1894, Georgia's mascot was a solid white female bull terrier owned by a student, Charles H. Black, Sr., of Atlanta. Trilby, named after a novel by George Du Maurier, served as the campus pet and mascot for the Chi Phi fraternity.

Disputing stories speculate the origin of the Bulldog nickname, and the story of Trilby provides yet another opinion: "...every day Trilby took herself down to old Herty field with her master for football practice. She ran signals with the best of them and became an accustomed figure on the athletic field...One morning, Trilby failed to appear for her breakfast and after a frantic search she was finally discovered proudly washing the faces of her newborn family, 13 white puppies...Late one dusky fall afternoon, Trilby appeared for a grid workout and scampering after her came her 13 children, darting through players' legs, barking and pace. 'Well,' suggested one of the players, 'Trilby has brought us a name, Bulldogs.' ...Every time a game was played on Herty Field, the boys would floss Trilby and her 13 offerings up with red and black ribbons, and so attired they have gone down in history as perhaps the first 'sponsors' in southern football." —Ruth Stanton Cogill (Atlanta newspaper)

"After the rein of Trilby and her family, chaos developed in the mascot department at the university. Many games had several, depending on which alumnus got his dog to the game first." —AJC, Nov. 18, 1962

Mr. Angel, 1944-46

Mr. Angel, a brindle and white colored English Bulldog owned by Eastman,Ga., physician, Warren Coleman, filled a void during some of the war years.

There was no mascot roaming the sidelines and Coleman took Mr. Angel to games and stood with him on the sidelines. His picture on the field and with the Georgia cheerleaders appears in the 1945 and '46 UGA annual, the Pandora.

Butch, 1947-50

Butch was a brindled English bulldog owned by Mabry Smith of Warner Robins, Ga. He was spotted by students who were attending the 1946 Georgia-Georgia Tech game in Athens, and the canine appeared to be suited for the mascot position. Smith agreed to loan Butch to the University during the football season along with a female puppy named Tuffy. The female died of a heart attack following the Georgia-Kentucky game in 1948, but Butch continued to serve. Spending the off-season at Smith's home in Warner Robins, Butch was tragically shot in the summer of 1951 by a policeman after the dog escaped from his pen and was found roaming the streets. Butch is buried behind Smith's business along Watson Boulevard.

In 2004 plans for a marker honoring Butch in his hometown were put into motion by longtime Warner Robins resident Guy Fussell.

Mike, 1951-55

Butch was succeeded by Mike, another brindled English bulldog, owned by C. L. Fain. Mike lived in the field house on campus and died of natural canine causes in 1955. As his master's thesis, Gene Owens of Fort Worth, Texas, cast the bronze statue of Mike which is located at the entrance of Memorial Hall.

1956 - Uga Takes the Field

In the last 100 years of intercollegiate football, Georgia's Uga has established himself as the nation's most well-known mascot. The line of pure white English bulldogs, which epitomizes everything Georgia, has been owned by the Frank W. "Sonny" Seiler family of Savannah, Ga., since Uga I first graced the campus in 1956.

Through the years, Uga has been defined by his spiked collar, a symbol of the position which he holds. He was given his name, an abbreviation for the university, by William Young of Columbus, a law school classmate of Seiler. Each of the Uga mascots is awarded a varsity letter in the form of a plaque, identical to those presented to all Bulldog athletes who letter in their respective sports.

As determined and published by the Pittsburgh Press, the University of Georgia is the only major college that actually buries its mascots within the confines of the stadium. Ugas I, II, III, IV, V, VI, VII and VIII are buried in marble vaults near the main gate in the embankment of the South stands. Epitaphs to the dogs are inscribed in bronze, and before each home game, flowers are placed on their graves. The memorial plot attracts hundreds of fans and visitors each year.

For the past 20 years, Uga's jerseys have been custom-made at the beginning of each season from the same material used for the players' jerseys. Old jerseys are destroyed.

Uga's on-field home is a permanent air conditioned doghouse located next to the cheerleader's platform, providing comfort in the heat of August and September. The custom-made doghouse is a gift from the Bahamian Bulldog Club of Nassau, Bahamas, through the courtesy of Fred Hazlewood.

Uga I, 1956-66

"Hood's Ole Dan"

Record: 53-48-6

The current Uga line of solid white English bulldogs began with Uga I, Hood's Ole Dan, born Dec. 2, 1955, in Columbus. Uga I was given to Cecelia Seiler by a friend, Frank Heard of Columbus and appeared in his first game in the 1956 home opener. As recalled by Sonny Seiler, "...his original red jerseys were made by Cecelia. It was necessary to take up children's t-shirts to fit the dog in the right places. There is no telling how many of these jersey's he wore out. During the early games in Athens, especially the hot ones before he had a dog house, the large green hedges that surround Sanford Stadium afforded welcomed shade in the heat of battle. Unfortunately, the hedges constantly tore these jerseys and new ones had to be made." epitaph: Damn Good Dog

Uga II, 1966-72

"Ole Dan's Uga"

Record: 42-16-3

Uga I was succeeded by his son, Ole Dan's Uga at an impressive pregame ceremony at Homecoming, 1966. With the Georgia Redcoat Band lining the field, Uga II was led to the center of the field by Charles Seiler, son of Sonny and Cecelia. The student body erupted in a cheer that was picked up by the entire stadium, "Damn Good Dog!"

Uga II had an impressive reign as Georgia participated in five bowl games and won two SEC championships. epitaph: Not Bad for A Dog

Uga III, 1972-80

"Seiler's Uga Three"

Record: 71-32-2

Born Oct. 9, 1972, Seiler's Uga III was present for Georgia football's finest moment as Herschel Walker took the Bulldogs to the 1980 national championship. He led Georgia to six bowl games in nine years and closed out his career in ultimate fashion winning the 1980 NCAA championship. Uga III retired on the 100th football game of his career, marking the season-opener of the 1981 season. He died just weeks later. epitaph: How 'Bout This Dawg

Uga IV, 1981-89

"Seiler's Uga Four"

Record: 77-27-4

Uga IV was perhaps the most active of all the Georgia mascots, standing as the only one to attend a bowl game every year of his service (1981-89). He took over for Uga III in the 1981 season opener and over the next nine seasons, led Georgia to a record of 77-27-4. The highlight of his career was his personal appearance at the Heisman Trophy Banquet with Herschel Walker in New York on December 9, 1982. Uga IV was escorted through thebanquet hall by the president of the Downtown Athletic Club, and was earlier photographed with Herschel by photographers from across the country. The proud Bulldog donned his game jersey for the outing and added the formal touch of a collar and black tie. Uga IV was the first mascot invited to the Heisman Banquet.Declared "Dog of the Decade" by Vince Dooley in 1991, Uga IV was posthumously awarded the highest honor available to University of Georgia mascots — the Georgia varsity letter. epitaph: The Dog of the Decade

Otto, 1986

"The Substitute"

Record: 3-1

Although Otto was not pure white like his father, he was called upon to fill in for his younger brother, Uga IV, who injured ligaments in his left hind knee when jumping off a hotel bed before the Vanderbilt contest. In four games during the 1986 season, Otto led the team to a 3-1 record and also co-mascotted (along with Uga IV), a victory over instate rival Georgia Tech. After winning his first two games, fans cheered, "2-and-0 with Otto!" Dooley, serving as head coach during Otto's brief tenure, favored the substitute the most. "I have always had a great affection for those who came off the bench and performed, and he did that and had a great time," Dooley said. Otto is buried in the Seiler's backyard.

Uga V, 1990-99

"UGA IV's Magillicuddy II"

Record: 65-39-1

In the first game of 1990, Uga V officially began his reign as the Georgia mascot taking over from his father Uga IV, who passed away at his home in Savannah on Feb. 26, 1990. Uga V was the last pup sired by Uga IV and was born on March 6, 1990.

Named in honor of one of the greatest Bulldogs, Dan Magill, former Assistant Athletic Director for Public Relations and longtime tennis coach and sports information director. Surprisingly, the Seiler family became aware that Uga IV's mate was expecting only 10 days before the litter was due. This notice came a week after Uga IV had passed away at his home in Savannah from kidney failure. There were only three pups in the litter and the last one born on March 6 was the only solid white male.

Uga V had been perhaps the most well known of all the Bulldog mascots highlighted by his appearance on the cover of the April 28, 1997, Sports Illustrated which declared him the nation's best college mascot. Rocketed to stardom, he also appeared in Clint Eastwood's "Midnight In The Garden Of Good And Evil" — filmed in his hometown of Savannah, Ga. Uga V also presided over Georgia's most successful collective sporting effort in department history as the Bulldogs claimed four NCAA team titles during the 1998-99 season — women's swimming and diving, women's gymnastics, men's tennis and men's golf — and placed second in the Directors' Cup race. He died on Nov. 22, 1999, just over two months after his retirement. epitaph: "Nation's Best College Mascot"—*Sports Illustrated

Uga VI, 1999-2008
"Uga V's Whatchagot Loran"
Record: 87-27

In 2007, Uga VI became the winningest mascot in school history and owned a record of 87-27. The fall of 2008 would have been his 10th season after Uga VI reigned over more games than any other mascot with 114. He died on June 27, 2008. In his last game, the Bulldogs defeated Hawai'i 41-10 in the Allstate Sugar Bowl in New Orleans on Jan. 1, 2008. Georgia finished the season ranked second in the AP poll.

The pregame passing of the bone ceremony from Uga V to his heftier and friskier son, Whatchagot Loran, took place at the 1999 Georgia-South Carolina contest. Only a year old at his coronation, Uga VI stands as the biggest of all the Uga mascots weighing in at 65 pounds — 20 pounds heavier than his father.

His first season climaxed in a magnificent come from behind victory over Purdue at the Outback Bowl in Tampa. The comeback from a 25-point deficit marked an unprecedented feat in Georgia annals and the largest comeback in collegiate bowl history.

The 2000 season ended in Hawaii, but due to the distance and a quarantine rule, Uga VI missed the O'ahu Bowl, marking the first time the Georgia mascot had missed the postseason game since the 1969 Sun Bowl.

Alongside first-year head coach Mark Richt, Uga VI saw his third consecutive 8-4 season, which included a 26-24 win at then-No. 6 Tennessee for the Bulldogs' first win in Knoxville since 1980.

Uga VI and Georgia experienced their best season in two decades as the 2002 Bulldogs won a record 13 games (to only one loss), and topped Arkansas to win the program's first league title since 1982. And Uga VI roamed the sidelines as the Bulldogs defeated Florida State in the 2003 Nokia Sugar Bowl, 26-13.

The 2006 season marked the 50th anniversary of the Uga legacy of mascots at UGA. Georgia returned to Atlanta, Ga. to defeat Virginia Tech in the Chick-fil-A Bowl on December 30, 2006 to end the season with a 9-4 record.

In 2007, Uga VI passed Uga IV (77-27-4) for the most wins of any bulldog in school history.

epitaph: A Big Dog For A Big Job, And He Handled It Well

Uga VII, 2008-2009
"Loran's Best"
Record: 16-7

The seventh in the Uga line of Georgia mascots was introduced to the Georgia people on Aug. 30, 2008, during pre-game ceremonies of the Bulldogs' season opener against Georgia Southern.

"Loran's Best" officially became "Uga VII," when he was introduced for the first time to the Sanford Stadium crowd prior to kickoff of the Georgia vs. Georgia Southern game. He was escorted onto the field by members of the Frank W. "Sonny" Seiler family of Savannah who have owned the continuous line of mascots since Uga I took up the mantle in 1956.

Uga VII passed away unexpectedly on Nov. 19 of heart-related causes. It was the Thursday before the final home game of the 2009 season and the Bulldogs did not have a live mascot at the game. Instead, a wreath was placed on UGA VII's doghouse, and the players wore a special UGA VII decal on their helmets to remember him. "Russ," the five-year-old half brother of Uga VII, served as the Bulldog mascot for the Georgia Tech game in Atlanta and helped his squad to a 30-24 win. He was the first substitute mascot since "Otto" in 1986. "Russ" also served as the mascot in the 2009 bowl game. epitaph: Gone Too Soon

Uga VIII, 2010
"Big Bad Bruce"
Record: 4-2

Born Sept. 12, 2009 in Savannah, Ga., Uga VIII is the grandson of Uga VI. He carries on the tradition of more than 60 years of all-white bulldogs bred by Frank "Sonny" Seiler and family.

Uga VIII was named in honor of Dr. Bruce Hollett from the University's School of Veterinary Medicine. Dr. Hollett has been a long time caregiver for the famed line of English bulldogs. UGA VIII served six games in the 2010 season before he became ill and missed the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. He passed away with lymphoma on February 4, 2011. epitaph: He Never Had A Chance

Uga IX, 2012-Present
"Russ", 2009-2012 Record 16-9
Total Current Record: 26-11

Uga IX, formerly "Russ," the half-brother of Uga VII, served as interim Bulldog mascot for a total of 25 games. He worked nine games during the 2009 and 2010 seasons after Uga VII and VIII passed away. He roamed the sidelines at all 14 games during the 2011 season. He then served for two wins at the beginning of the 2012 season before being promoted as Uga IX prior to the Florida Atlantic game on Sept. 15, 2012. His time as mascot has included the 2011 SEC Eastern Division championship, two road wins at Georgia Tech and a victory over Texas A&M in the 2009 Independence Bowl in Shreveport, La. He completed 2012 with a 12-2 record and a win over Nebraska in the Capital One Bowl.
